BULLS LOOK TO KEEP ROLLING IN 2020

The University at Buffalo football team will look to continue its winning ways in 2020 after coming off an eight-win campaign and first-ever bowl win in 2019. The Bulls are enjoying arguably their most successful stretch in school history, winning 24 games over the last three seasons. With a number of key players returning, UB will look to continue its winning ways and challenge for a Mid-American Conference title.

The Bulls return eight starters on offense and nearly 100 percent of their total offensive production from a season ago. All but one running back who had a carry and one wide receiver who caught a pass are returning along with every quarterback to an offense that posted record-setting numbers last season. The Bulls shattered the school record for rushing in 2019 with 3,256 yards to lead the MAC and rank 10th in the nation.

Seven starters return to one of the most dominant defenses in recent memory. The Bulls led the MAC in total defense and was especially stout against the run, allowing 94.2 yards per game which ranked fourth in the country. UB also returns 28 of their school-record 43 sacks from a season ago.

Here is a position-by-position breakdown as the Bulls enter the 2020 season.

QUARTERBACK

The Bulls will benefit from having two returning quarterbacks in 2020 that each saw time as a starter.

Kyle Vantrease started the final eight games of the season and led the Bulls to a 6-2 record over that stretch. He went 101-for-172 for 1,193 yards and eight touchdowns in the season. He also rushed for six other scores. The junior was named the MAC East Offensive Player of the Week after throwing for 208 yards and a touchdown and rushing for two other scores in UB's win at Eastern Michigan on Nov. 2.

Vantrease was inserted into the starting lineup in week six after Matt Myers, who had been the opening-game starter, was lost to injury after starting the season's first five games. Before suffering an injury, Myers had thrown for 602 yards and six touchdowns and rushed for 94 yards and two other scores. In a prime-time nationally-televised game at Penn State, Myers threw for a season-best 245 yards and a touchdown.

Trevor Bycznski redshirted last season as a true freshman, but did appear in one game.

Freshman Casey Case enrolled at UB in January and will be available for spring drills as will walk on Aaron Chase.

RUNNING BACK

The Bulls posted eye-popping rushing numbers last season and fortunately they return their top four leading rushers. For the first time in school history, Buffalo featured two 1,000-yard running backs en route to rushing for a school-record 3,256 yards to rank fifth nationally.

Jaret Patterson returns as not only the top running back on the team, but one of the best in the nation. The junior rushed for a school record 1,799 yards and 19 touchdowns in 2019 and was named All-MAC First Team. Patterson finished the season strong, rushing for 663 yards and 12 touchdowns over the year's final three games. He ranked fifth in the nation in rushing last season.

Kevin Marks is the perfect complement to Patterson and had a strong season in his own right. The junior rushed for a career-best 1,035 yards and scored eight touchdowns in 2019. Over his two seasons, Marks has rushed for 1,880 yards and 21 touchdowns. He ranks in the top 10 in school history in career rushing yards and career rushing touchdowns.

Dylan McDuffie rushed for 150 yards on the year and averaged a team-best 6.5 yards per carry. He also added a touchdown reception on the season.

Ron Cook played 12 games as a true freshman in 2019, serving as a running back and wide receiver hybrid. As a running back, he rushed for 96 yards on 18 carries (5.3 ypc) and scored one touchdown on the season. He also had five receptions for 40 yards on the year.

Incoming freshman Caron Robinson, from Aquinas Institute in Rochester, enrolled in January and will also be looking to make an impact.

2020 SEASON PREVIEW

2020 BUFFALO FOOTBALL

Walk-on Tajay Ahmed will compete at running back after playing a special teams role last season.

Freshman Kolbe Burrell will also add depth at running back.

WIDE RECEIVER

The Bulls look to be in a much better place at wide receiver entering the 2020 season than they did at this same point a year ago. In 2019, the Bulls returned only two receivers that had a career catch. However, this season UB returns six receivers that recorded a catch last season.

Leading the way is senior Antonio Nunn. The Tampa native is coming off the best season of his career en route to earning third-team All-MAC honors. Nunn led the Bulls with 49 catches for 687 yards and six touchdowns, all career highs. He was the Bulls' most consistent receiver last season, registering at least two catches in each of the 12 games in which he played.

Daniel Lee was new to the team last season and it took him a while to find his niche. However, once he did, he became a reliable option for the Bulls. Lee ranked second on the team in receiving with 23 catches for 284 yards and a touchdown. He was especially effective in the second half of the season as 21 of his 23 catches came over the final seven games.

Like Lee, Carlton Todd was a JUCO transfer that was new to the team last season. Todd finished the year with 10 receptions for 115 yards.

Dominic Johnson was a quarterback over his first three seasons at Buffalo. But after seeing limited playing time, he decided to make the move to wide receiver. At 6-5, he is a big target and showed he had good hands hauling in six catches for 46 yards and a touchdown. After a full offseason as a receiver, his numbers should improve in 2020.

Marlyn Johnson played in the first four games last season as a true freshman before redshirting for the remainder of the year. He had three catches for 67 yards and showed the ability to stretch the field.

LeMaro Smith appeared in two games early in the season before missing the remainder of the year with an injury. He did register two catches for 19 yards in 2019.

Bernard Porter, who transferred Highland Community College prior to the 2019 season, appeared in four games in his first season before redshirting. Trevor Wilson also redshirted last season, but did appear in one game.

Jelani Foster is also ready to make an impact after missing last season with an injury.

Tyree O'Neil joined the team in January after transferring from Glendale Community College.

After redshirting last season, Javien Cuff will look to make an impact.

TIGHT END

Led by Zac Lefebvre, the Bulls return all four tight ends that saw action last season. Lefebvre ranked third on the team in receiving with 21 catches for 235 yards and two touchdowns. An experienced senior, he has played in 33 career games and has 36 career catches.

Jake Molinich may not have a catch in his career, but he has been a key component in the Bulls' running game. Molinich started all 13 games in 2019 and helped block for UB's record-breaking rushing attack.

Cole Burniston played in all 13 games, primarily on special teams. He did have a five-yard touchdown catch at Liberty.

Tyler Stephens also looks to make an impact after redshirting as a freshman in 2019. As will freshman Trevor Borland who joined the program in January.

OFFENSIVE LINE

The Bulls will need to replace three starters on an offensive line that was one of the best in the nation in 2019. However, they do have experienced players returning that are ready to step up and play a more prominent role.

The offensive line will be anchored by right tackle Kayode Awosika. A two-year starter and team captain a season ago, Awosika was an All-MAC Second Team selection in 2019. Awosika will likely make the move to left tackle for the 2020 campaign.

NUNN

2020 BUFFALO FOOTBALL

KOONCE & RIGGINS

WRIGHT

Center Mike Novitsky is the other returning starter. Novitsky started all 13 games at center for the Bulls and was named to the FWA All-Freshman All-American Team Midseason Watch List.

Jacob Gall will likely move into one of the starting guard spots. Gall played in 26 games over the last two seasons and made six starts, so it should be a seamless transition.

Jake Fuzak was a reserve tackle over the last two seasons, but did start the last two games of 2019 at right tackle and will likely challenge for the starting right tackle job in 2020.

Jack Klenk has seen game action in special teams formations and could factor in to the rotation as well.

There are also a number of young offensive linemen ready to step up as well, including Gabe Wallace, Bence Polgar, Anthony Laudicina, Alan Scharer and Caelan Shepard.

In addition, freshmen Deondre Doiron and Tyler Doty got valuable work in the spring after enrolling at UB in January.

New to the program this season is Ray Thomas-Ishman, a graduate transfer offensive lineman who was a three-year starter at Massachusetts.

Freshmen Michael Ford and Sam Todd will add depth to the offensive line.

DEFENSIVE LINE

The Bulls will return three of four starters on the defensive line, including the Mid-American Conference's top two sackers from a season ago.

Defensive end Malcolm Koonce led the conference in sacks in 2019 with nine to go along with 34 tackles, 11 tackles for loss and three forced fumbles. He was an All-MAC First Team selection.

On the other end of the line, Taylor Riggins was also a first-team All-MAC pick after totaling 50 tackles, 10.5 tackles for loss, 8.5 sacks and three fumble recoveries. He ranked second in the league in sacks.

The Bulls ranked fourth in the nation in rush defense, thanks in large part to the play of defensive tackle Eddie Wilson. At 6-4, 320, Wilson is a massive specimen who started the final three games of 2018 and all 13 games last season.

Tyrece Woods made an immediate impact as a true freshman in 2019. The Detroit native played in 11 games as a reserve defensive tackle and had eight tackles, two tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks on the year.

Ronald McGee played in all 13 games at defensive tackle last season after transferring from Highland Community College. He quietly had a steady season for the Bulls with 11 tackles and a sack on the year.

Eddie Zinn-Turner is a graduate transfer from Vanderbilt with one year of eligibility remaining. An experienced defensive tackle, Zinn-Turner should factor in immediately in the defensive line rotation.

After beginning last season as a linebacker, Max Michel finished the year as a defensive end. His versatility and quickness will help with UB's pass rush.

Also likely to factor in to the defensive end rotation will be juniors Frendy Darelus and Eric Black as well as redshirt freshmen Kyler Lange and C.J. Bazille and true freshman Bryce Johnson-Maith.

Redshirt-freshman Jordan Avissey and true freshmen Michael Tetteh and George Wolo will add depth at defensive tackle.

LINEBACKERS

Linebacker is another position where the Bulls return a lot of depth, led by All-MAC outside linebacker Kadofi Wright. As a junior, Wright played in 10 games, had 31 tackles, two sacks, two interceptions, two fumble recoveries and a forced fumble en route to earning All-MAC Second Team honors.

James Patterson started 10 games at outside linebacker after starting 14 games as a true freshman in 2018. A team captain and steady presence in the locker room, Patterson had 40 tackles, 6.5 tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks last season.

Tim Terry had a breakout season for the Bulls in 2019. Due to injuries, Terry was elevated to the starting lineup in week two and made nine starts on the season. The Pittsburgh native had 43 tackles, 1.5 tackles for loss and a sack on the year.

Also likely to earn a spot in the linebacker rotation will be Justin Mulbah, Rich Miller and Caleb Tate.

The Bulls added a trio of graduate transfer linebackers in the off-season. Brendan Pyne (Brown), Tryee Thompson (UCLA) and Keith Woetzel (Lehigh) will all likely make an immediate impact with the Bulls.

Freshman Lonnie Rice has also joined the program.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

All-MAC safety Tyrone Hill will lead a defensive backfield that lost two starters, but does return a number of players with game experience. Hill was an All-MAC Second Team selection in 2019 after recording 70 tackles, three tackles for loss and a team-best 10 pass breakups.

Cory Gross could challenge for the other starting job after playing in 12 games last season as a redshirt-freshman. Gross had 38 tackles and a pass breakup on the year.

E.J. Brown, a midyear enrollee from Iowa Central Community College who began his career at West Virginia, will also likely challenge for the starting role. Brown was a JUCO All-American for the Tritons last season.

Roy Baker is a veteran player who has played both safety and cornerback in his career. Baker has seen action in 32 games over his career and had 18 tackles and four pass breakups last season.

The Bulls will also look to Evan Gantley, Marcus Fuqua and Dylan Powell to add depth at safety. As will freshmen Jalen McNair and Logic Hudgens.

Aapri Washington returns as a starting cornerback after a solid season in 2019. Washington had 32 tackles, two interceptions and four pass breakups last season. He also started six games in 2018.

Ali Abbas should also factor in to the cornerback rotation after gaining valuable experience over the last two seasons. Abbas had the best game of his career against Charlotte in the Bahamas Bowl when he had nine tackles and a pass breakup.

Wankeith Akin will also be in the mix at cornerback after playing in 22 games over the last two seasons primarily on special teams. He did have an interception at Akron last year.

After beginning his career at wide receiver, Isaiah King made the move to cornerback midway through the 2018 campaign. He had four tackles last season.

Larry Robbins and Mark Davis both redshirted last season and will add depth at cornerback.

SPECIAL TEAMS

The Bulls return both kickers that made field goals a season ago. Alex McNulty was 10-of-15 on field goals on the season. He was strong down the stretch, making all six of his field goal attempts over the last six games of the season. He was also 40-of-42 on extra point attempts.

Jackson Baltar also saw game action and was 1-of-4 on kick attempts. He drilled a 52-yarder against Temple on his first career attempt. It tied for the second longest field goal in school history.

Baltar also stepped up and filled in at punter when starter Evan Finegan when down with an injury in the second game of the season. The Orlando native averaged 37.2 yards per punt.

The aforementioned Finegan is healthy and will most likely return to his starting punter role. Though he only had five punts in 2019, Finegan broke the single-season school record for punt average in 2018, averaging 41.7 yards per punt.

Jeremiah Riordan returns for his fourth season as long snapper on field goals and Evan Davis is back for his second season as long snapper on punts.

BUFFALO BULLS

31-32 at Buffalo • 140-38 Overall

Now in his sixth season, head coach Lance Leipold continues to build the Buffalo football program into a consistent winner.

Leipold led Buffalo to its first ever bowl win in 2019, defeating Charlotte, 31-9, in the Makers Wanted Bahamas Bowl. UB finished the 2019 campaign with a record of 8-5, its third straight season of bowl edibility and second straight bowl berth, both program firsts. Two of Buffalo's four bowl berths in school history have come with Leipold at the helm.

Buffalo had a school-record 12 players named All-MAC in 2019, including running back Jaret Patterson who rushed for a school-record 1,799 yards and 19 touchdowns. The UB offense was paced by a rushing attack that has rolled up a program-best 3,256 yards on the ground. Running back Kevin Marks also rushed for 1,035 yards on the year, giving the Bulls two 1,000-yard running backs in the same season for the first time in school history.

The defense in 2019 was one of the best in program history. The Bulls ranked seventh nationally in total defense, allowing 291.9 yards per game and fourth nationally against the run, allowing 94.2 yards per game.

Leipold led the Bulls to a school-record 10-win campaign in 2018. The 10 wins, included a program-best 7-1 record in the Mid-American Conference, a MAC East Division title and the school's second trip to the MAC Championship game. Among the Bulls non-conference victories in 2018, included a 42-13 win at Rutgers, for the school's first-ever win over a Power 5 opponent. The Bulls earned an invitation to the 2018 Dollar General Bowl for just their third bowl game berth in program history.

Leipold was named the 2018 Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year as well as a semifinalist for the George Munger College Coach of the Year Award, presented yearly by the Maxwell Football Club.

Buffalo had the finest offensive campaign in school history in 2018. The Bulls scored 484 points, 64 touchdowns and rolled up 5,803 yards of total offense on the season - all school records. Quarterback Tyree Jackson was named the MAC Offensive Player of the Year - the first UB player to ever win the award. Running back Jaret Patterson was named the MAC Freshman of the Year after becoming the first freshman in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. The Bulls had a school-record 10 players named to the All-MAC team, including six on the first team.

In 2017, he guided the Bulls to a 6-6 record and bowl eligibility for just the third time as an FBS program. The six wins were the fourth most in a season since the Bulls made the move to the FBS ranks in 1999.

The Bulls featured an explosive offense in 2017 that ranked second in the Mid-American Conference, averaging 432 yards per game and led the MAC with 291 passing yards per outing. UB's 5,183 yards of total offense were the third most in school history for a single season. The Bulls produced 20 plays of 45 yards or more and those 20 plays came from 10 different players.

Buffalo posted key wins against Conference USA Champion Florida Atlantic as well as a nine-win Ohio team. The Bulls finished the season with three straight wins for the first time as an FBS program. In addition, UB's six losses were by a total of 29 points, including two one-point losses and a three-point, seven-overtime loss.

In 2016, Leipold led a very young squad, featuring 42 new players. The Bulls were the fourth most inexperienced team in the nation. Buffalo earned impressive wins over Army (a bowl team) and Akron. Buffalo had four players named to the All-MAC team.

In 2015, his first with the Bulls, Leipold led UB to a 5-7 mark. He became the first UB head coach to win five games in his first season since Bob Deming went 6-3 in 1969.

Included in the Bulls five wins was a victory at Florida Atlantic - Buffalo's first non-conference road win since the 2009 season. The Bulls won three road games in 2015 - the most in UB's FBS era (since 1999).

The Bulls had five players named to the All-MAC football team in 2015, led by tight end Matt Weiser who was also named an Academic All-American - becoming the first UB football player in the modern era to earn the distinction.

Leipold was named the 25th head coach in the history of the Buffalo football program on December 1, 2014.

Leipold came to UB from Wisconsin-Whitewater where he compiled an astounding 109-6 record and won six Division III National Championships over his eight seasons. A six-time National Coach of the Year, Leipold reached 100 career victories faster than any other coach in NCAA history - at any level.

Leipold has gathered multiple honors from as many as five football-related organizations. He earned his sixth American Football Coaches Association Division III Coach of the Year award in 2014. He has won the award more times than any active coach at any level. He passed the late Joe Paterno, who was a five-time recipient of the award.

In his first season as head coach at Whitewater, The Warhawks went 14-1 and won the national title. He led the Warhawks back to the national championship game in 2008, but they lost to Mount Union, 31-26. Wisconsin-Whitewater went 15-0, winning the national championship in 2009, 2010 and 2011 and won 46 straight games over that span. Following a 7-3 season in 2012, UWW went a perfect 15-0 and won the national championship in 2013 and followed with another perfect 15-0 season and a national title in 2014.

In Division III, where athletic scholarships aren't a part of the game, Leipold was able to recruit top-notch talent to the campus in southeastern Wisconsin. During his tenure, running back Justin Beaver earned the Gagliardi Trophy as the top player in Division III. Brent Allen earned the Division III Rimington Award as the top center. Jeff Schebler was the first recipient of the Fred Mitchell Award, given to the top placekicker in Division II or III. Tailback Levell Coppage earned D3football.com Offensive Player of the Year accolades, and Cole Klotz was selected D3football.com Defensive Player of the Year. Defensive back Jared Kiesow was named an NCAA Elite 88 Award winner. The Warhawks have piled up 56 All-America honors under Leipold's tutelage.

A native of Jefferson, WI, Leipold began his coaching career at Wisconsin-Whitewater in 1987 as a quarterbacks coach and then wide receivers coach. He moved to the University of Wisconsin from 1991-93 as a graduate assistant and helped the Badgers to a Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl appearance in 1993.

As an assistant coach at Division II Nebraska-Omaha from 1994-2000, Leipold helped turn the Mavericks from a 1-10 team in 1994 into three-time North Central Conference champions during his tenure. After being promoted to offensive coordinator in 2000, he moved on to the University of Nebraska, where he served for three seasons under current Ohio head coach Frank Solich. He was on the same staff as former UB head coach Turner Gill. The Cornhuskers competed in the national championship game in 2001 and earned bowl bids in 2002 and 2003.

He returned to Nebraska-Omaha to serve as associate head coach and offensive coordinator from 2004-06. The Mavericks finished 8-3 and won the conference championship each of his three seasons.

Leipold is a 1987 graduate of Wisconsin-Whitewater where he was a standout quarterback for the Warhawks. He ranks second in school history in career pass attempts (647), fourth in yards (4,277), sixth in completions (303) and tied for 10th with 27 touchdowns. He was inducted into the Whitewater Hall of Fame in 2003. He was inducted into the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 2018.

He is a member of the AFCA Ethics Committee as well as the AFCA Board of Trustees.

Leipold and his wife, Kelly, have a daughter, Lindsey, and a son, Landon. His daughter, Lindsey plays volleyball at Stetson University.

2020 BUFFALO FOOTBALL

Andy Kotelnicki

Offensive Coordinator/Tight Ends
UW-River Falls '04
Sixth Season at Buffalo

Andy Kotelnicki is in sixth season as offensive coordinator. He will coach the tight ends beginning in 2020 after previously coaching the running backs and quarterbacks.

In 2019, Kotelnicki oversaw a running back unit that rushed for 3,256 yards, shattering the single-season school record. Sophomore Jaret Patterson rushed for a school-record 1,799 yards and 19 touchdowns on the season and ranked fifth in the nation in rushing. Fellow sophomore Kevin Marks rushed for 1,035 yards - marking the first time in school history UB had two 1,000-yard rushers in the same season.

Buffalo ranked tenth in the nation in rushing offense in 2019. In addition, UB's 36 rushing touchdowns tied the single-season school record.

Buffalo featured a record-breaking offense in 2018. The Bulls shattered the program record for single-season total offense posted 5,803 yards on the year. UB scored 64 offensive touchdowns in 2018 which was also a school record.

Running back Jaret Patterson became the first freshman in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season, finishing with 1,013 yards en route to being named the MAC Freshman of the Year. Patterson scored 14 touchdowns and fellow running back Kevin Marks scored 13 touchdowns, marking the first time in school history two different players scored 13 or more touchdowns in the same season.

Quarterback Tyree Jackson was named the MAC Offensive Player of the Year - the first time in school history a Buffalo player won the award. In addition, seven offensive players were named All-MAC in 2018.

Buffalo's offense made significant progress under Kotelnicki in 2017. The Bulls ranked second in the Mid-American in total offense, averaging 432 yards per game. Due to injuries, Buffalo was forced to start three different quarterbacks throughout the season and the Bulls still led the MAC in passing offense, averaging 291 yards per game.

Other notable numbers from the 2017 season included ranking sixth in the nation in most improved scoring offense; sixth in the nation in most improved passing offense; eighth in the nation in turnovers lost; third in the MAC in points per possession; second in the MAC in fewest 3-and-outs; third in MAC in total offense and first in the MAC in third down conversion percentage.

In his first season coaching running backs, Kotelnicki helped with the development of sophomore Emmanuel Reed who rushed for 840 yards and nine touchdowns in his first season as a starter.

In 2016, the Bulls had three offensive players named All-MAC, including tight end Mason Schreck (2nd team), running back Jordan Johnson (3rd team) and center James O'Hagan (3rd team). Redshirt-freshman quarterback Tyree Jackson threw for 1,772 yards - the most ever by a UB freshman quarterback. Jackson also became the first freshman quarterback to throw for 300 yards in a game (he did it twice).

In 2015, the Bulls averaged 249.5 passing yards and 136.9 rushing yards per game. Also the quarterbacks coach, Kotelnicki oversaw a passing game that had 283 pass completions - the second most in school history for a single season. The Bulls' 23.6 completions per game were the most ever.

Kotelnicki came to UB from Wisconsin-Whitewater where he had spent the previous two seasons as offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator.

At UWW, Kotelnicki led an offense that led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) in scoring offense (40.1), rushing offense (218.2) and passing offense (269.5) in 2014 en route to a perfect 15-0 season and the programs' sixth Stagg Bowl national championship in eight seasons.

The Warhawks featured one of the most efficient offensive attacks in the nation under Kotelnicki's leadership in 2013. Whitewater led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference and ranked among the top five in the nation in first downs (311), interceptions allowed (1) and turnover margin (+2.3).

The Warhawks' offense also led the conference in red zone offense, converting scores on 85.9 percent of drives inside the 20-yard line, and set single-season team records in passes completed (312) and passing touchdowns (42) in 2013.

Prior to Whitewater, Kotelnicki served as offensive coordinator at the University of Mary, an NCAA Division II institution in Bismarck, N.D., for two seasons. In his first year as coordinator, the Marauders scored over 10 points per game more than the previous season and led the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference in scoring offense, total offense and passing efficiency. During his tenure, Kotelnicki mentored nine All-NSIC North Division honorees, the sixth 1,000-yard rusher in the school's history and an All-American wide receiver.

Kotelnicki spent six seasons as an assistant coach at UW-River Falls, including four as offensive coordinator, in 2003 and from 2006-10. The Falcons set 24 offensive school records during his second stint, and he was promoted to assistant head coach for the 2010 campaign.

Kotelnicki worked at Western Illinois University, where he coached tight ends, special teams and the offensive line, from 2004-06. He was also an assistant strength and conditioning coach from 2004-05 and the interim strength and conditioning coach in 2006.

After earning a bachelor's in exercise and sport science from UW-River Falls in 2004, Kotelnicki picked up a master's in kinesiology from Western Illinois in 2006. He is a member of the American Football Coaches Association and the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association.

Kotelnicki and his wife, Lindsey, have a son, Max, and daughter, Joy.

Brian Borland

Defensive Coordinator/Cornerbacks
Morningside (IA) '85
Sixth Season at Buffalo

Brian Borland is in his sixth season as defensive coordinator and also serves as cornerbacks coach.

In 2019, Borland oversaw a defense that was arguably one of the best in school history. The Bulls led the Mid-

American Conference and ranked seventh in the nation in total defense, allowing 291 yards per game. The Bulls were especially stout against the run, allowing only 94.2 yards per game - good for fourth best in the national rankings.

Seven members of the UB defense were named All-MAC in 2019, including safety Joey Banks, and defensive ends Malcolm Koonce and Taylor Riggins who were first-team selections. Koonce and Riggins ranked first and second in the conference, respectively, in sacks and led a defense that had a school-record 43 sacks on the season.

Buffalo ranked third in the Mid-American Conference in total defense in 2018, allowing 355.4 yards per game - less than two yards per game behind first place.

Linebacker Khalil Hodge finished his three-year career with 421 tackles, the third most in school history. Hodge was named first-team All-MAC along with defensive end Chuck Harris. Cornerback Cam Lewis was named All-MAC Second Team.

Buffalo ranked second in the conference with 14 interceptions in 2018. It was the most by a UB team since 2013. Eight different players recorded interceptions on the year.

Borland led a unit that ranked fifth in the MAC in scoring defense (24.8) in 2017. Three UB defensive players were named All-MAC, including linebacker Khalil Hodge (first team) who ranked second in the nation in tackles with 154 - the most by a UB player in the Bulls' FBS era. Joining Hodge on the All-MAC team were defense ends Demone Harris (second team) and Chuck Harris (third team).

In 2016, Borland guided a defense that led the MAC and ranked 13th in the nation in pass defense, allowing 181.5 yards per game. Linebacker Khalil Hodge accumulated 123 tackles, the eighth most in school history for a single season, and was named All-MAC Second Team.

The Bulls were a very opportunistic defense in 2015. UB scored a school-record seven defensive touchdowns (by seven different players) to rank second in the nation.

Three members of his defense were named to the All-Mid-American Conference team in 2015. Linebacker Brandon Berry was named to the second team. Linebacker Okezie Alozie and cornerback Boise Ross were named to the third team. Ross broke the school record for passes defended in a season with 20 to rank fifth in the nation.

Borland came to UB from Wisconsin-Whitewater where he spent the previous 21 seasons. Since 2002, Borland served as the Warhawks defensive coordinator.

COACHING STAFF

Borland began at UW-W in 1994, also serving as the defensive backs coach. He was announced as a 2015 Wisconsin Football Coaches Association Hall of Fame inductee.

Borland was named Division III Coordinator of the Year in 2013 by footballscoop.com after helping lead the Warhawks to the NCAA Division III national championship, the team's fifth in seven seasons. UW-Whitewater led the nation in scoring defense, allowing just 9.1 points per contest, and ranked No. 1 in the country in fumbles recovered (19) and turnovers forced (44).

From 2009-14, Borland's defenses led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference and ranked among the top 20 in the nation in rushing defense, scoring defense and total defense. The Warhawks also led the league in pass efficiency from 2010-13.

Borland earned Wisconsin Collegiate Assistant Coach of the Year honors from the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association in both 2004 and 2006. In the 2009 season, Borland led the Warhawks to the fourth best scoring defense in Division III. In 2010, the Warhawks were ranked second in NCAA Division III in run defense. In 2011, Borland's rushing defense was ranked first in the WIAC.

From 1994-2002, Borland also coached track and field at UW-Whitewater. In 2000, he led the Whitewater women's track and field team to a fourth place finish at the NCAA Division III Outdoor Track and Field Championships. He earned NCAA D-III national coach of the year honors for his successful season.

Prior to Whitewater, Borland was the defensive coordinator for three years at Baker University (Kan.) from 1991-93, and at the University of Minnesota-Morris from 1989-90. He also was the head women's softball coach at Baker University and head track and field coach at the University of Minnesota-Morris. Borland's other stops include stints as a graduate assistant football coach at the University of Florida and at the University of Wisconsin. He also coached defensive backs at Arizona Western College.

Borland played his college football at Morningside (Iowa) College (1981-84) where he was a four-year letterwinner and three-year starter at defensive back, and a team captain.

In addition to his football coaching duties at UW-W, Borland taught in the HPRC Department.

He has a wife, Gayle, and two sons, Evan and Jaren.

Rob Ianello

Associated Head Coach/Wide Receivers
Catholic '87
Sixth Season at Buffalo

Rob Ianello is in his sixth season as associate head coach, recruiting coordinator and wide receivers coach.

In a run-heavy offense, the Bulls still produced an All-MAC wide receiver in 2019. Antonio Nunn had a breakout season, with a career-high 49 receptions, for 687 yards and six touchdowns en route to earning third-team All-MAC honors.

For just the second time in program history, Buffalo had two wide receivers named to the All-Mid-American Conference team in the same season as Anthony Johnson was named to the first team and K.J. Osborn was named to the third team in 2018. Johnson became just the third player in school history with two 1,000-yard receiving seasons in a career with 1,011 yards in 2018. In his two seasons with the Bulls, Johnson had 25 touchdown catches, third in school history.

In 2017, Johnson who had one of the finest seasons in school history. The junior receiver led the Mid-American Conference in receiving yards with 1,356 and touchdowns with 14, which was also a school record. Johnson, a first-team All-MAC selection, ranked second in the nation in receiving yards per game (113.0) and third in receiving touchdowns (14).

Buffalo's receivers flourished under Ianello in 2015. For the first time as an FBS program (since 1999) the Bulls had three players with 50 or more catches in a season. Matt Weiser had 63; Ron Willoughby had 61 and Marcus McGill had 50.

Ianello brought over 25 years of experience to UB and is recognized as one of the best recruiters in college football. He most recently spent three seasons on the Kansas football staff where he was the recruiting coordinator and wide receivers coach.

Ianello was instrumental in helping bring the 25th-rated signing class to Kansas in 2013 according to The Sporting News. The Jayhawk class had two four-star prospects, including the top-rated JUCO prospect in the nation in defensive lineman Marquel Combs.

No stranger to the Mid-American Conference, Ianello served as head coach at Akron for the 2010 and 2011 seasons. Prior to his stint at Akron, Ianello was a member of the coaching staff at Notre Dame from 2005-09. He coached the Irish in the 2008 Hawai'i Bowl, 2007 Sugar Bowl and 2006 Fiesta Bowl.

From 2005-08 at Notre Dame, he served as wide receivers coach and coordinated the recruiting efforts of the Irish. In January 2009, he was promoted to assistant head coach for offense. In that role, he led offensive staff meetings when head coach Charlie Weis was not present, and later served as the team's interim head coach.

Notre Dame's 2009 offense ranked sixth nationally in passing offense (323.50 ypg) and ninth in total offense (451.75 ypg). Ianello mentored Irish wide receiver Golden Tate, who was the 2009 Biletnikoff Award winner and a consensus All-American. Additionally, he coached Jeff Samardzija, who was a Biletnikoff Award finalist in 2005 and 2006 and earned All-America honors in 2006.

As the recruiting coordinator for the Irish, he directed three consecutive top-10 recruiting classes from 2006-08, something only three other schools (USC, Florida and Georgia) could claim. Additionally, Ianello is the only coach named one of the 25-best recruiters nationally from 2005-09 by Rivals.com. In the book "The Second Season" by recruiting analyst Tom Lemming, Ianello is named one of the top-10 recruiters of the last 30 years.

Ianello had two coaching stints at Wisconsin (1990-93, 2003-04), and was part of a staff that helped lead the Badgers to the 1994 Rose Bowl, the 2003 Music City Bowl and the 2005 Outback Bowl.

From 1994-2002, Ianello was on staff at Arizona, serving as recruiting coordinator from 1994-96, and wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator from 1997-2002. The Wildcats played in two bowl games, the 1997 Insight.com Bowl and the 1998 Holiday Bowl. The 1998 Arizona team finished 12-1, which stands as the best record in school history.

Ianello served on the board of trustees of the American Football Coaches Association in from 2003 to 2009. The board formulates policy and provides direction for the AFCA. He also has served as the chair of the AFCA's assistant coaches' committee and the general chairman of the AFCA's all-division assistant coaches' committee. He also served on the AFCA ethics committee in 2010 and 2011.

Born Nov. 4, 1965, Ianello is a native of Port Chester, N.Y., and is a 1987 graduate of The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., owning a bachelor's degree in English.

Ianello and his wife, the former Denise Dove, have one son, Zachary, and two daughters, Ashley and Courtney. Denise played collegiate basketball at Northern Illinois and is a former assistant women's basketball coach at Arizona and Wisconsin. She has also worked as a scout in the WNBA.

Chris Simpson

Linebackers/Co-Defensive Coordinator
Wisconsin-Whitewater '98
Sixth Season at Buffalo

Chris Simpson is in his sixth season as linebackers coach. He was promoted to co-defensive coordinator prior to the 2020 season.

Under Simpson, linebackers have been one of the most consistent units on the team. At least one linebacker has been named All-MAC in each of his five seasons at Buffalo. In 2019, outside linebacker Kadofi Wright was an All-MAC Third Team selection. Middle linebacker Matt Otwinowski was named Academic All-MAC for the third time in 2019.

Simpson helped develop Khalil Hodge, arguably the best middle linebacker to ever play at Buffalo. In only three seasons, Hodge recorded 421 tackles, the third-highest total in school history.

In 2018, three of the team's four leading tacklers were linebackers, including Hodge (144), James Patterson (77) and Jordan Collier (56).

2020 BUFFALO FOOTBALL

In 2017, Hodge had arguably the finest season by a linebacker in school history. The junior middle linebacker had an FBS-era record 154 tackles on the year to lead the Mid-American Conference and rank second in the nation. Hodge was named All-MAC First Team for his efforts.

In 2016, for the second straight season, Simpson's linebackers were the top three leading tacklers on the team. Hodge had a huge season for the Bulls, finishing with 123 tackles, the eighth most in school history for a single season and the second most in UB's FBS era. Hodge was named All-MAC Second Team.

Simpson made an immediate impact with the Bulls as the linebackers were arguably the strongest unit of the Bulls defense in 2015. The top three tacklers on the team were linebackers and for the first time since 2008, the Bulls had two different players with over 100 tackles as Nick Gilbo finished with 113 and Brandon Berry had 104. Berry was named All-MAC Second Team and Okezie Alozie was named third-team All-MAC.

Simpson came to UB after spending 2014 as the outside linebackers coach at MAC-foe Eastern Michigan.

Prior to coaching at EMU, Simpson spent the previous four seasons as linebackers coach at Grand Valley State. During his time in Allendale, Mich., the team posted a 39-11 record and four Division II playoff victories. He also tutored six All-Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) performers during that span.

Grand Valley closed the 2013 football campaign ranked third in the final American Football Coaches Association poll. The Lakers advanced to the NCAA DII National Semifinals for the eighth time after knocking off undefeated and No. 3 ranked Colorado State University-Pueblo.

Senior linebacker Jordan Kaufman received second team All-GLIAC honors after leading the squad in tackles with 87, while also recording eight tackles for loss, a fumble recovery and returning a blocked field goal 56 yards for a score. Also earning honorable mention league honors for GVSU were senior linebackers Charles Hill and Luther Ware.

His 2011 linebacking unit was a key component in a Laker defense that ended the year among the GLIAC leaders. GVSU led the league in tackles for loss (93) and sacks (36), while ranking second in scoring defense (20.2). GVSU limited opponents to 15.5 points per game in its last five games that season.

Simpson's linebacking unit helped the Laker defense rank nationally in several categories, including the top 20 in tackles for loss and quarterback sacks in 2010. Ware and Justin Victor earned All-GLIAC accolades during the 2010 campaign.

He arrived at GVSU following a two-year stint at the University of Nebraska-Omaha under current EMU defensive coordinator Brad McCaslin. The Mavericks were 14-9 with one appearance in the NCAA DII playoffs during his time on the staff.

Simpson spent five years at Division III national power Wisconsin-Whitewater where he was an assistant coach in charge of the linebackers. UWW was 42-3 his final three seasons with three-straight NCAA DIII National Championship game appearances and three Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference crowns. The Warhawks claimed the 2007 National Championship and turned in an overall mark of 56-9 during his five years on the staff.

In addition, Simpson coached two years (1999-2000) at Waunakee (Wis.) High School, one year (2001) at Loras College in Dubuque, Iowa, as a graduate assistant and one year (2002) at Wisconsin-Platteville. In the summer of 2006, Simpson was selected as a participant at the NCAA Men's Football Coaches Academy.

He also has received an NFL Minority Coaching Internship on six occasions, from the Green Bay Packers for defensive line and special teams in the summer of 2006, in 2007 with the Dallas Cowboys, in 2008 with the Carolina Panthers, in 2009 with the Minnesota Vikings and Cleveland Browns and in 2013 with the Detroit Lions.

Simpson graduated with a bachelor's degree from Wisconsin-Whitewater in physical education in 1998. He earned his master's in curriculum and instruction in 2004.

Simpson and his wife, Nicole, have three children: Jarryn, Riley and Noah.

Taiwo Onatolu

Defensive Ends/Special Teams
Nebraska-Omaha '06
Fifth Season at Buffalo

Taiwo Onatolu is in his second season as defensive ends coach after serving as cornerbacks coach over the previous four seasons. He began his career at UB as director of player personnel. He also coaches the specialists.

The defensive end unit was one of UB's strongest in 2019. UB players ranked 1-2-3 in the MAC in sacks on the season behind Malcolm Koonce's (9), Taylor Riggins' (8.5) and Ledarius Mack's (8) stellar seasons. Koonce and Riggins were named to the All-MAC First Team and Mack was second-team selection. Defensive ends accounted for 27.5 of the school-record 43 sacks the Bulls registered on the season.

Buffalo ranked fifth in the Mid-American Conference in pass defense in 2018, allowing 194 yards passing per game. The Bulls recorded 14 interceptions, eight of which came from cornerbacks. Cameron Lewis was named All-MAC Second Team after posting three interceptions and six pass breakups on the year.

The Bulls ranked fifth in the Mid-American Conference in pass defense in 2017, allowing 205 yards per game and added eight interceptions.

In 2016, UB's defense led the MAC and ranked 13th in the nation in pass defense - allowing 181.5 yards per game.

Onatolu came to UB from Missouri State where he spent the previous five seasons at inside linebackers coach. He is a native of Papillion, NE, and spent the 2007 to 2010 seasons as an assistant at the University of Nebraska-Omaha.

He was also a standout linebacker at UNO, starting four seasons for the Mavericks, earning All-NCC first-team honors three times and All-America first-team honors in 2004. He was the North Central Conference's most valuable linebacker in 2004 after posting 98 tackles and 5 interceptions. He was in on 71 tackles as a senior, helping him earn All-America second and third-team honors by different agencies.

Onatolu finished his four-year stint at UNO as the program's No. 2 all-time tackler with 371 total stops. He also tallied 46.5 tackles for loss, 12.5 sacks, 7 interceptions and 182 solo tackles in 44 games. He helped the Mavericks to a pair of NCC titles and a 2005 playoff appearance.

After completing his degree in Communication, Public Affairs & Community Service from UNO in 2006, Onatolu stayed at UNO for two years as a graduate assistant coach, working with the squad's linebackers. He coached All-American safety Randy Kush in 2007, the school's all-time leader in interceptions. He moved to full-time status in March 2010 and helped UNO to a combined 29-16 ledger during his four years on staff, including NCAA Division II playoff appearances in 2007, 2008 and 2009.

In his first season at Missouri State in 2011, he had the best of both worlds with a gritty and determined senior in David Ingram at one inside linebacker spot and a redshirt freshman in Andrew Beisel at the other. Beisel went on to record a team-high 84 tackles, becoming the first MSU freshman since 1998 to lead the club in total stops and earned MVFC All-Newcomer Team distinction. Ingram, who started all 11 games, tallied 77 tackles and finished third on the squad.

In 2012, Onatolu used five different starters in his rotation, including Beisel who led all middle linebackers with 73 stops in 10 games, while redshirt freshman Christian Hoffmann brought down 41 ball carriers with 5 starts in an impressive debut campaign.

It was Beisel and Hoffmann who led Onatolu's inside backers again in 2013. Beisel tallied 96 stops while starting all 12 games and earning All-MVFC honorable mention honors his junior campaign, while Hoffmann earned 9 starts his sophomore season with 36 total stops. The tandem helped Missouri State rank among the national leaders in red zone defense, rushing defense, scoring defense and passing defense, while ranking as one of the top defensive units in the MVFC.

Onatolu's twin brother, Kenny, has enjoyed a professional career that began with the Edmonton Eskimos in the Canadian Football League and included stints with the Minnesota Vikings and Carolina Panthers. He was also an All-NCC linebacker.

Onatolu and his wife, Jennifer, have a son, Isaiah.

Jim Zebrowski

Quarterbacks/Passing Game Coordinator
Mount Union '91

Jim Zebrowski, a coaching veteran in the Big Ten and the Mid-American Conference, begins his fourth season as quarterbacks coach and co-offensive coordinator. Zebrowski brought 25 years of coaching experience to Buffalo, including five successful seasons at Minnesota.

Quarterbacks have flourished under the watchful eye of Zebrowski. Due to injuries, the Bulls needed to start two different young quarterbacks during the 2019 season and UB still won eight games and earned the program's first win in a bowl game. Redshirt-freshman Matt Myers began the season as the starter before suffering a season-ending injury in the fifth game. Myers had a standout performance against Penn State, throwing for 245 yards and a touchdown. Redshirt-sophomore Kyle Vantrease started the final eight games of the season and threw for 1,193 yards and eight touchdowns and ran for six other touchdowns.

In 2018, Tyree Jackson became the first player in school history to be named Mid-American Conference Offensive Player of the Year and the first quarterback in school history to be named All-MAC. He threw for 3,131 yards and 28 touchdowns in 2018 - both were second in school history for a single season.

Zebrowski made an immediate impact in his first season with the Bulls in 2017. Despite, an injury-riddled season that saw the Bulls have to start three different quarterbacks, Buffalo still led the MAC and set a school record with 3,490 passing yards on the year. Tyree Jackson threw for 2,096 yards and 14 touchdowns in eight games on the season, including three 300+ yard games. Backup Drew Anderson started against Western Michigan and threw for a school- and conference-record 597 yards and seven touchdowns.

Zebrowski was the quarterbacks coach at Minnesota from 2011-15 and helped lead the Gophers to three straight bowl games. He is well known for developing young quarterbacks. Minnesota signal-caller Mitch Leidner advanced from running the scout team to accounting for 2,250 yards and 21 touchdowns in 2014. Leidner had 10 rushing touchdowns, tying the school record for a quarterback.

He helped lead the Gophers to the Meineke Car Care Bowl in 2012, the Texas Bowl in 2013 and the Citrus Bowl in 2014. He likely would have stayed at Minnesota. However, head coach Jerry Kill stepped down for health reasons in 2015, resulting in changes to the coaching staff.

Prior to coaching at Minnesota, Zebrowski was the quarterbacks coach at Northern Illinois in 2010. He tutored All-MAC quarterback Chandler Harnish, an NFL draft pick of the Indianapolis Colts. He also laid the foundation for Harnish's backup Jordan Lynch who was an All-American and a Heisman Trophy finalist in 2013. Featuring a high-powered offense that averaged over 35 points per game, Zebrowski helped lead the Huskies to the 2010 MAC Championship game and a win over Fresno State in the Humanitarian Bowl.

This is the second time Zebrowski will serve under Leipold. He was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Wisconsin-Whitewater from 2007-09. Over his tenure, the Warhawks went 42-3 and advanced to the Division III title game every year, winning it twice. Zebrowski was named the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year and the FootballScoop.com Division III Coordinator of the Year in 2009.

In 2004, he became the head coach at Lakeland University and led the Muskies to a 28-12 record over four seasons. He led Lakeland to a pair of Illini-Badger Conference championships and advanced to the Division III playoffs for the first time in school history.

Zebrowski and his wife, Heather, who was named Female Athlete of the Year during her volleyball playing days at Southern Illinois, have two children, Zachary and Lauryn.

Scott Fuchs

Offensive Line
North Dakota State '95
Second Season at Buffalo

Scott Fuchs, a 25-year veteran of college coaching, enters his second season as offensive line coach at the University at Buffalo. Fuchs came to Buffalo after spending the previous five seasons as offensive line coach at Wyoming. Head Coach Lance Leipold and Fuchs also worked on the same staff at Nebraska-Omaha from 2004-06.

Fuchs made an immediate impact in his first year coaching the offensive line. The Bulls allowed only eight sacks in 2019 which was a single-season school record for fewest sacks and ranked second in the nation. The Bulls rushed for a school record 3,256 yards which was good for tenth in the country. Three offensive linemen were named All-MAC. Left tackle Evin Ksiezarczyk was named to the first team and right tackle Kayode Awosika and right left guard Paul Nosworthy were named to the second team.

While at Wyoming, Fuchs' coaching highlights included developing All-American center Chase Roullier who went on to start for the Washington Redskins, designing a blocking scheme for running back Brian Hall who rushed for a school-record 4,287 over his career and helping coach an offense that ranked second in the nation in redzone offense in 2017. In 2016, Fuchs helped coach the 2016 Cowboy offense that averaged 35.9 points per game to rank No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 25 in the nation.

An outstanding offensive lineman himself, Fuchs was named to the 1993 Kodak/American Football Coaches Association first-team All-America squad as a senior offensive guard at North Dakota State. NDSU won three consecutive North Central Conference rushing titles during his three years as a starter. He was part of three North Central Conference Championship teams at NDSU in 1990, '91 and '92. The 1990 Bison captured the NCAA Division II National Championship.

Fuchs coached the offensive line at North Dakota State, his alma mater, from 2009-13 before being hired at Wyoming. He helped lead the Bison to an astounding 43-2 record and three national titles between 2011 and 2013. In 2012 and 2013, Fuchs coached Consensus First Team All-America offensive tackle Billy Turner. Turner was selected in the third round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins. All total, Fuchs has coached nine All-Americans and 32 All-Conference performers during his career.

Prior to returning to his alma mater, Fuchs coached one season at Southern Illinois in 2008. That team tied for the conference title and advanced to the first round of the FCS Playoffs. He also coached at Grand Valley State (2007), Nebraska-Omaha (2003-06), Minnesota-Crookston (2000-02), Wisconsin-Eau Claire (1999) and Valley City State (1997-98). The only school he did not coach the offensive line was his one season at Wisconsin-Eau Claire when he coached the defensive line.

Fuchs earned his bachelor of science degree from North Dakota State in physical education and social science education in 1995 and his master of education degree with a specialization in physical education and athletic administration in 1997.

Scott and his wife, Emily, have three boys, Hank, Jack and Gus.

Jeff Burrow

Safeties
Cincinnati '99
Second Season at Buffalo

Jeff Burrow enters his second season as safeties coach after spending last season as the Bulls' director of player personnel.

Burrow made an immediate impact in his first season coaching safeties. Both starting safeties, Joey Banks and Tyrone Hill, were named All-MAC. Banks was named to the first team after leading the Bulls in tackles (85) and interceptions (3). Hill was a second-team selection after recording 70 tackles and a team-best 10 pass breakups.

Prior to arriving at UB in 2018, Burrow served as Kent State's safeties coach from 2011-17 and was promoted to co-defensive coordinator in 2017. He was part of the Golden Flashes' 2012 MAC East title run and the program's first bowl appearance in 40 years. In each of Burrow's first five seasons, a Kent State safety earned All-MAC honors, including two-time first-team All-MAC pick Nate Holley.

In his time at Kent State, he coached a number of Academic All-MAC players, including Jordan Italiano who became the first football player in Kent State's history to be a three-time Academic All-American. In 2015, he was the nation's only position coach to have two Academic All-Americans.

Prior to Kent State, Burrow spent one season as the secondary coach at Indiana State after spending the previous season as the assistant secondary coach at Marshall. From 2007-08, Burrow was the wide receiver's coach at Jacksonville State.

Burrow was the defensive graduate assistant at Notre Dame in 2005-06. He also served as the defensive graduate assistant at Minnesota in 2003 and 2004.

Burrow was a four-year starter at cornerback at the University of Cincinnati from 1995-99. Following his collegiate career, he signed with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League and played one season with the team.

The Sylvester, GA native earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Cincinnati in 1999 and a master's degree in education from Minnesota in 2004. He and his wife, Janea, have three daughters, Jazmyne, Jaelyn and Jayda.

second in the league.

Among the many other highlights of Ricumstrick's tenure on the CMU coaching staff is the 2015 D line that led CMU's ascension to a No. 2 overall defense -- and No. 16 ranking among all Football Bowl Subdivision programs -- in the MAC; and the 2014 unit, that ranked No. 1 in the MAC and 29th in FBS.

Among the leaders of that 2014 unit was tackle Leterrius Walton, a First Team All-MAC selection who was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the NFL Draft and who remains with the Steelers heading into the 2018 season.

Ricumstrick's coaching career spans two decades, all at the collegiate level, beginning in 1991 as a graduate assistant at CMU. He has served in a variety of coaching roles at Northwood (1993-94), Wayne State (1995), Michigan State (1996), Army (1997), and Missouri Southern (1998-99) before returning to CMU to coach linebackers and special teams from 2000-03.

Ricumstrick moved on to Miami (Ohio) in 2004 where he served as the linebackers coach, then went to Indiana where he coached special teams, linebackers and defensive ends from 2005-10.

In 2011, Ricumstrick worked as an assistant at Central Missouri and in 2012 at Eastern Illinois before returning to Mount Pleasant in 2013.

Ricumstrick was a four-year letterman from 1985-88 at CMU, and was named the Chippewas' Most Valuable Player and received Second Team All-MAC recognition as an inside linebacker as a senior.

He was twice honored that season as the MAC Defensive Player of the Week, the first for a 10-tackle performance against Montana State; and the second for a 10-stop, two-interception ledger against Toledo. He returned one of those picks against the Rockets 71 yards for a touchdown.

He finished the season with 121 total tackles, including 71 solos and 11 for loss, and had three interceptions and one fumble recovery.

In 1988, Ricumstrick received the Kurt Dobronski Award, an honor presented annually to the Central Michigan senior who demonstrates great effort, intensity and appreciation for the football program.

The Detroit native and Northwestern High School grad compiled 266 total tackles (126 solos), 18 stops for loss, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery, and three interceptions during his CMU career.

Ricumstrick earned both his bachelor's degree (1990) and master's degree (1992) from CMU. Ricumstrick and his wife Sandy have two sons, Obie and Anton.

George Ricumstrick

Defensive Tackles
Central Michigan '90
Second Season at Buffalo

George Ricumstrick is in his second season as Buffalo's defensive tackles coach after spending the previous six years as the defensive line coach at Central Michigan.

In his first season as defensive tackles coach, Ricumstrick's unit played a key role in the Bulls' rushing defense which led the Mid-American Conference and ranked seventh in the nation. Chibueze Onwuka, a former walk on, was an All-MAC Third Team selection after registering 43 tackles, eight tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks - all career highs.

In 2017, Ricumstrick led a unit that played a critical role on a Chippewa defense that ranked third in the nation with 31 forced turnovers and ranked seventh with 19 interceptions.

Ricumstrick protégé Joe Ostman wrapped up his CMU career in 2017 as one of the very best to ever play on the defensive front for the Chippewas.

Ostman finished his career with 28 sacks, ranking second in program history in that category. In 2017, Ostman made 14 sacks, the second highest total ever by a Chippewa, as he led the nation in total sacks and in sacks per game (1.27). He posted 20.5 tackles-for-loss.

Ricumstrick's defensive front, which also featured the likes of mainstay Mitch Stanitzek and up-and-coming Mike Danna, was unquestionably a major factor on a Chippewa defense that ranked No. 1 against the pass in the Mid-American Conference and limited opposing offenses to 5 yards per play, which ranked

Issac Reed

Running Backs
Baldwin Wallace '16
First Season at Buffalo

Issac Reed begins his first season as running backs coach after spending the previous two seasons as an offensive graduate assistant for the Bulls.

Reed was an assistant wide receivers coach over the past two seasons at Buffalo. He aided in the development of three All-MAC receivers, including Anthony Johnson and K.J. Osborn in 2018 and Antonio Nunn in 2019.

Prior to arriving at Buffalo, Reed was the running backs coach at Ohio Wesleyan for the 2017 season. He coached running back A.J. Jones who, as a true freshman, averaged seven yards per carry to lead the Bishops in rushing and rank 10th in the North Coast Atlantic Conference.

Reed began his coaching career at his alma mater, Baldwin Wallace, serving as the assistant running backs coach for the 2016 season. He helped coach running back Austin Smith who rushed for 681 yards and 14 touchdowns en route to earning All-Ohio Athletic Conference honors.

Reed was a four-year letterwinner at Baldwin Wallace where he played running back and kick returner. A team captain, Reed was an All-Conference selection in 2015 and a two-time Bob Packard Most Outstanding Offensive Back Award Winner (2014 & 2015).

2019 GAME RECAPS

BUFFALO 38, ROBERT MORRIS 10

AUG. 29, 2019 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – The University at Buffalo football team used a steady dose of the run game to cruise to a 38-10 season-opening win over Robert Morris at UB Stadium on Thursday night. Of the Bulls 57 plays in the game, 47 were run plays that resulted in 285 yards on the ground.

Redshirt-freshman quarterback Matt Myers looked quite comfortable in his first career start. The first freshman to start at quarterback for the Bulls since 1991, Myers finished 5-for-10 for 69 yards and two touchdowns and added 47 yards and another score on the ground.

"I thought he had good command," head coach Lance Leipold said of Myers. "He's a pretty even-keeled guy. He didn't get rattled."

Myers opened the scoring with a 1-yard rushing touchdown on UB's first possession. He also tossed a pair of touchdown passes to tight end Zac Lefebvre. He hit Lefebvre in stride for a 40-yard touchdown on the final play of the first quarter and later hit Lefebvre on a three-yard strike late in the first half.

Five different UB running backs had carries in the game led by returning Mid-American Conference Freshman of the Year Jaret Patterson who finished with 90 yards and a touchdown on only 12 carries. Kevin Marks rushed for 75 yards on 13 carries. Dylan McDuffie added 27 yards on four carries and freshman Ron Cook, Jr. had 24 yards on seven carries and scored his first career touchdown on a 3-yard run.

Robert Morris scored all 10 of its points in the first 20 minutes of the game, before the Bulls shut them out for the remainder of the contest. Redshirt-freshman Cory Gross had a team-high seven tackles. James Patterson had five tackles, including 1.5 for loss.

Buffalo had seven tackles for loss in the game. Both Malcolm Koonce and Ledarius Mack each had two tackles for loss and a sack. Koonce forced a fumble on his sack resulting in a recovery by Taylor Riggins.

Overall, Leipold was pleased UB was able to convincingly win the game by playing a fairly one-dimensional offense.

"I don't think it's any secret where our experience lies. We were trying to establish a run game and I thought we ran the ball extremely well in the first quarter," head coach Lance Leipold said. "Until they could really slow you down, there wasn't a need to throw it."

#15 PENN STATE 45, BUFFALO 13

SEPT. 7, 2019 • BEAVER STADIUM • UNIVERSITY PARK, PA

UNIVERSITY PARK, PA – The University at Buffalo football team led 15th-ranked Penn State at the half, but couldn't hold on as the Nittany Lions rallied for a 45-13 win at Beaver Stadium on Saturday night.

Matt Myers connected with Julien Bourassa on a six-yard touchdown pass late in the second quarter to give the Bulls a 10-7 lead at halftime, silencing the 104,136 in attendance. The touchdown capped a dominant first-half performance by the Bulls. UB outgained the Nittany Lions, 270-82 in total offense in the first half.

A week after only attempting 10 passes in the opener against Robert Morris, the coaching staff took the training wheels off the Bulls' redshirt-freshman quarterback, letting him throw the ball. Myers responded by completing 11-of-17 passes for 184 yards and a score in the first half, looking poised beyond his years.

Penn State came out of the locker room in the second half with a sense of urgency. However, on its opening drive, a big hit by Joey Banks forced a fumble that was recovered by Aapri Washington and the Bulls were back in business. But on the ensuing possession, Penn State's defense came up with a play that turned the tide and the momentum of the entire game. John Reid stepped in front of a Myers' pass and returned it 36 yards for a touchdown to give the Nittany Lions a 14-10 lead.

After a three-and-out for the Bulls, Penn State's first play from scrimmage was a 23-yard touchdown pass to extend its lead to 21-10.

Alex McNulty connected on a 25-yard field goal, midway through the third quarter, to cut the Penn State lead to 21-13. It was McNulty's second field goal of the night. The redshirt-freshman also made good on a 32-yard attempt earlier in the game.

Penn State was able to capitalize on big plays down the stretch to pull away late.

"I'm really proud of our football team," head coach Lance Leipold said. "They competed really hard and played extremely well for 30 minutes. We came out in the second half and obviously a big switch in momentum, but give credit to Coach Franklin and his staff for their adjustments at halftime and you can see why they are a Top 25 team. They are explosive, but at the same time this group of young men battled and we took a huge step as a football team tonight."

The Bulls rushed for 184 yards in the game, led by Jaret Patterson who finished with 71. Kevin Marks added 64 yards and Dylan McDuffie had 43 yards on only six carries.

Myers finished 16-for-31 for 245 yards. His favorite target was wide receiver Antonio Nunn who had five catches for 113 yards, both career highs. Dominic Johnson, who recently moved from quarterback to wide receiver, had three grabs for 27 yards.

The Bulls ran 90 offensive plays, compared to just 46 for Penn State. Third down was also a big discrepancy as UB converted on third down 10 times while Penn State was just 2-of-9 on third down.

Banks had the best game of his career to lead the defense. The senior safety had a career-high 11 tackles, a sack and a forced fumble. Chibueze Onwuka added a sack and two tackles for loss to lead a stout defensive line.

2020 BUFFALO FOOTBALL

LIBERTY 35, BUFFALO 17

SEPT. 14, 2019 • WILLIAMS STADIUM • LYNCHBURG, VA

LYNCHBURG, VA – The University at Buffalo football team dropped a non-conference road game at Liberty, 35-17, at Williams Stadium on Saturday night. The loss dropped the Bulls to 1-2 on the season.

Liberty took the opening kickoff and drove 75 yards on only five plays to score the game's first touchdown and set the tone for the night. The Bulls seemed to right the ship early in the second quarter when Matt Myers found Dylan McDuffie for a 13-yard touchdown to tie the game, 7-7. It was McDuffie's first career touchdown.

However, Liberty scored 21 unanswered points to take a 28-7 lead at the half. The difference in the game were big plays and Liberty's ability to capitalize on them. The Flames scored on touchdown passes of 33 yards, 36 yards and 55 yards in the game.

Myers connected with Cole Burniston on a five-yard touchdown pass with 6:09 left in the game. It was Myers' second touchdown pass of the game and Burniston's first career touchdown reception.

Alex McNulty added a career-long 45-yard field goal in the third quarter.

"I want to give credit to Liberty. They outcoached us, they outplayed us and that's the responsibility of myself," head coach Lance Leipold said. "We knew they had the ability to be explosive on the outside and create some things and they did a great job of taking it to us."

Tight ends had been the favorite target of Myers through the first two games, but with Zac Lefebvre and Julian Bourassa both out with injuries, it seemed to stifle the Bulls a bit on offense.

UB was effective running the ball, rushing for 206 yards in the game. Kevin Marks had a game-high 108 yards rushing on only 18 carries. Jaret Patterson finished with 69 yards on 17 carries.

Myers threw for 167 yards and two touchdowns in the game. Antonio Nunn led the Bulls with four catches for 49 yards.

The UB run defense had another impressive game, holding the Flames to just 76 yards rushing, with most of it coming in the fourth quarter. Tyrone Hill had a career-high eight tackles. Malcolm Koonce and Ledarius Mack each had a sack in the game.

BUFFALO 38, TEMPLE 27

SEPT. 21, 2019 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – Behind four forced turnovers, the University at Buffalo football team toppled Temple, 38-27, at UB Stadium on Saturday afternoon. The Bulls improved to 2-2 on the year, closing out the non-conference portion of their schedule.

A week after struggling at Liberty, and with a number of players out with injuries, the Bulls' defense stepped up and played its best game of the season. Buffalo had three interceptions and a forced fumble and were able to turn those turnovers into 21 points.

Temple, who entered the game 2-0 and coming off an upset win of 21st-ranked Maryland, jumped out to a 7-0 lead following its first possession. However, sparked by a 52-yard field goal by freshman Jackson Baltar - the second longest in school history, the Bulls scored 24 unanswered points in the second quarter to take total control of the game.

Jaret Patterson scored the first of his two touchdowns, following a botched punt snap by Temple that gave the Bulls the ball at the Temple seven-yard line. He scored on a four-yard run to give UB the lead for good, 10-7. Patterson finished with a season-best 133 yards and two touchdowns in the game.

Midway through the second quarter, Ledarius Mack sacked Temple quarterback Anthony Russo and jarred the ball loose. Eric Black pounced on fumble and the Bulls were set up with a first down at the Temple 19-yard line. Three plays later, Matt Myers kept it himself on a seven-yard touchdown run to put the Bulls ahead, 17-7.

Kevin Marks scored on a two-yard touchdown run with just 22 seconds left in the half to extend the UB lead to 24-7 at the break. His touchdown capped a 14-play, 84-yard drive that ate up nearly six minutes off the clock.

The Owls took the opening kickoff of the second half and were driving deep into UB territory. However, sophomore cornerback Aapri Washington came up with a huge interception at the goal line to thwart a Temple score.

Devon Russell notched the Bulls' second interception of the game midway through the third quarter to once again give UB a short field. Four plays later, Patterson barreled into the endzone for his second score of the game to put Buffalo ahead, 31-10.

Fittingly, the defense put the cap on the win when senior safety Joey Banks returned an interception 46 yards for a touchdown to extend the UB lead to 38-10 in the fourth quarter.

This game was won in the trenches as the Bulls dominated both the offensive and defensive line of scrimmage. The offensive line blocked for a rushing attack that gained 217 yards on the ground. Conversely, the defense held the Owls to just 31 yards rushing.

2020 BUFFALO FOOTBALL

MIAMI (OH) 34, BUFFALO 20

SEPT. 28, 2019 • YAGER STADIUM • OXFORD, OH

OXFORD, OH – One week after capitalizing on turnovers to defeat Temple, the tables were turned on the University at Buffalo football team as four turnovers were too much to overcome in a 34-20 loss to Miami (OH) at Yager Stadium on Saturday afternoon. It was the Mid-American Conference opener for both schools.

The loss spoiled an impressive rushing day for the Bulls as they piled up a season-high 309 yards on the ground. Jaret Patterson rushed for 183 yards and a touchdown and Kevin Marks added 101 yards and a score.

Buffalo got on the board first when it took its second possession of the game, drove 61 yards on only three plays and scored a touchdown on a beautiful 20-yard touch pass from Matt Myers to Antonio Nunn to take a 7-0 lead.

After Miami answered with a 53-yard field goal, the Bulls struck again early in the second quarter when Patterson ripped off a career-long 82-yard touchdown run to put the Bulls ahead 14-3. It was the longest touchdown run by a UB player since James Starks had a 91-yard TD run at Miami (OH) in 2007.

After Miami scored to cut the Buffalo lead to 14-10, Buffalo committed its first costly turnover. Late in the first half, Miami forced and recovered a fumble at the UB three-yard line. The UB defense stiffened and held the RedHawks to a field goal and the Bulls led 14-13 at the half.

The game turned early in the second half when Miami's Mike Brown intercepted a UB pass and returned it for a touchdown to give the home team its first lead of the game, 20-14. It was the first of three third-quarter touchdowns for the RedHawks.

Trailing, 34-14, early in the fourth quarter, Marks hit pay dirt from 39 yards out to cut the Miami lead to 34-20. However, the Bulls would get no closer and dropped their third straight road game.

Besides turnovers, field position played a huge factor in the game. Miami started seven drives on Buffalo's side of the field.

"I can't fault the defensive effort," head coach Lance Leipold said. "There are plenty of things in all three areas that we have to be better at. Do I think our defense had a solid effort today? Yes, for as many times as they played on short fields."

The defense was led by Tim Terry, Jr. who had a career-high 10 tackles, including a tackle for loss. Joey Banks and Matt Otwinowski added eight and seven tackles, respectively.

The Bulls outgained the RedHawks, 398-265, in total offense, including over twice as many rushing yards.

OHIO 21, BUFFALO 20 (OT)

OCT. 5, 2019 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – The University at Buffalo football team dropped a heartbreaker in overtime to Ohio, 21-20, at UB Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

Kyle Vantrease made his first start of the season at quarterback in place of an injured Matt Myers and looked quite comfortable under center. The redshirt-sophomore finished 16-of-23 for 197 yards and two touchdowns and added 19 rushing yards and a score.

Vantrease got the Bulls on the board first when the found Dominic Johnson on a four-yard touchdown pass to give the Bulls a 7-0 lead early in the second quarter. It was Johnson's first career touchdown catch. Buffalo would hold the 7-0 lead at halftime.

Ohio marched down the field on its first possession of the second half to tie the game, 7-7. The Bobcats were driving again midway through the third quarter to take the lead, but linebacker Kadofi Wright came up with an interception at the UB nine to stymie the drive.

The defense came up big on Ohio's next possession when Malcolm Koonce got the strip sack of Ohio quarterback Nathan Rourke and it was recovered by Taylor Riggins at the Ohio 34-yard line. One play later, Vantrease connected with Antonio Nunn for a 34-yard touchdown to put the Bulls ahead, 14-7.

Ohio was able to tie the game with 10:39 left in the fourth quarter.

The Bulls had a chance to take the lead with 1:22 left in regulation, but weren't able to connect on a 46-yard field goal and the game went to overtime.

The Bulls got the ball first in overtime and scored on a Vantrease three-yard run. However, the extra point was missed, and when the Bobcats scored a touchdown on their first possession of OT, the extra point proved to be the difference.

Despite the loss, the UB defense had another strong outing. The Bulls had a season-high four sacks in the game and five tackles for loss. The Bobcats had trouble containing the Bulls off the edge as Taylor Riggins had two sacks and Malcolm Koonce had 1.5 sacks and two other quarterback hurries.

Tyrone Hill had a career-high 15 tackles in the game – 12 of which were solo. Joey Banks added nine tackles, including eight solo stops.

Marks led the Bulls with a season-high 112 yards rushing on 22 carries. It was his third 100-yard game of the season. Nunn led the receivers with 53 yards on four catches and a score. Carlton Todd had his most productive game as a Bull with four receptions for 34 yards.

BUFFALO 21, AKRON 0

OCT. 19, 2019 • InfoCision Stadium • Akron, OH

AKRON, OH – The University at Buffalo football team produced one of its finest defensive efforts in recent history, shutting out Akron, 21-0, at InfoCision Stadium on Saturday afternoon. It was just the Bulls' second ever road shutout against a Mid-American Conference opponent since joining the conference in 1999.

Buffalo scored two defensive touchdowns, forced four turnovers, had 11 tackles for loss, five sacks and held the Zips to just three yards rushing.

On their opening possession, the Bulls marched 75 yards on 14 plays and took a 7-0 lead on a two-yard touchdown run by Kevin Marks midway through the first quarter. It would be all the offense Buffalo would need as the defense took over from there.

UB's 7-0 lead would last until late in the third quarter when Taylor Riggins blitzed off the edge, sacked the Akron quarterback and jarred the ball free. Ledarius Mack scooped up the loose change and scampered 35 yards for the touchdown, giving the Bulls a 14-0 advantage.

Kadofi Wright scored the defense's second touchdown of the game midway through the fourth quarter. The junior linebacker sacked the Akron quarterback, forced a fumble and fell on the loose ball in the endzone for the score.

"I was really impressed with the way our defense flew around today," head coach Lance Leipold said. "We thought we had some good matchups up front and, with some pressure, we thought we could make some things happen and they did today."

The Bulls rushed for 189 yards in the game, led by Jaret Patterson's 88 yards on 17 carries. Marks finished with 71 yards on 19 carries and a touchdown.

Quarterback Kyle Vantrease, a native of Stow, OH, just eight miles from the Akron campus, had good command of the offense, finishing 14-of-23 for 65 yards. His favorite target was Daniel Lee who had a career-high six catches for 30 yards.

But this game was all about the UB defense. Wright finished with five tackles, two sacks, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Mack had three tackles for loss, a sack, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Joey Banks had five tackles, including two tackles for loss. Wankeith Akin, Jr. sealed the win with his first career interception.

BUFFALO 43, CENTRAL MICHIGAN 23

OCT. 26, 2019 • UB Stadium • Buffalo, NY

BUFFALO, NY – Behind the strength of five defensive takeaways, the University at Buffalo football team defeated Central Michigan, 43-20, at UB Stadium on Saturday afternoon. It was the Bulls' second straight win to level their record at 4-4 overall and 2-2 in Mid-American Conference play.

The game turned quickly in the Bulls' favor early in the second half when UB scored off takeaways on consecutive Central Michigan possessions to turn a 7-3 deficit into a 17-7 lead. The first touchdown was set up by a strip sack by James Patterson that led to an eight-yard touchdown pass from Kyle Vantrease to Antonio Nunn to give UB a 10-7 lead.

On the very first play of the Chippewas' next possession, Joey Banks ripped the ball free from the CMU running back and it was recovered by Kadofi Wright at the Central Michigan 15-yard line. It took only one play for Buffalo to find the endzone as Jaret Patterson ran it in from 15 yards out to extend the UB lead to 10 points.

Buffalo took a 24-7 lead with 3:39 left in the half when Vantrease and Nunn connected for their second touchdown of the game, this time on a 14-yard fade pattern. After CMU scored with just 1:35 left in the half to cut the UB lead to 24-14, the Bulls marched 75 yards on only five plays and scored on a three-yard Kevin Marks touchdown to take a 30-14 lead at the half. The big play on the drive was a 54-yard pass completion from Vantrease to Patterson.

Central Michigan never threatened in the second half. Alex McNulty made two of three field goals in the second half to help the cause. On the day, the redshirt-freshman made kicks of 29, 29 and 39 yards.

Wright sealed the victory by returning an interception 40 yards for a touchdown late in the contest. It was the second straight game Wright scored a defensive touchdown.

"Causing five turnovers is outstanding and it builds confidence for everyone" head coach Lance Leipold said. "[CMU has] been an explosive offense all year and for us to do a good job ourselves, it's a good day when you can be plus-four in the turnover margin."

Patterson led the Bulls offensively with 149 yards rushing and a touchdown as well as 59 receiving yards to account for 208 yards of total offense. Vantrease threw for 179 and two touchdowns. Nunn was his favorite target with five catches for 77 yards and two scores.

Defensively, it was another standout performance for Banks. The senior safety had a game-high 10 tackles, a forced fumble and an interception. Tyrone Hill added eight tackles. Riggins had five stops, 1.5 sacks and a fumble recovery.

BUFFALO 43 , EASTERN MICHIGAN 14

NOV. 2, 2019 • Rynearson Stadium • Ypsilanti, MI

YPSILANTI, MI – The University at Buffalo football team won its third straight game in convincing fashion, defeating Eastern Michigan, 43-14, at Rynearson Stadium on Saturday afternoon. It was Buffalo's first-ever win at Eastern Michigan in five tries.

Saturday's win was arguably the Bulls' most complete performance of the season, dominating on both offense and defense.

Starting with the defense, the Bulls held Eastern Michigan to only 25 rushing yards in the game and 210 total yards with most coming late in the contest. The Bulls had five sacks and limited the Eagles to only six first downs in the game, tying the fewest by an opponent in UB's FBS era.

Offensively, UB doubled the Eagles in yardage, rolling up 460 yards of total offense. It was a balanced attack with 252 rushing yards and 208 yards passing.

Quarterback Kyle Vantrease had his best game as a Bull. The redshirt-sophomore threw for a career-high 208 yards and a touchdown and rushed for two other scores. Jaret Patterson rushed for 160 yards and two touchdowns on the day. The sophomore running back went over 2,000 yards for his career.

Antonio Nunn had a career-high seven catches for 87 yards and a touchdown. Kevin Marks also found the endzone to go along with 90 rushing yards.

Eastern Michigan, the top passing offense in the MAC, struck first in the game by connecting on an 80-yard touchdown pass to take a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter. However, it was all UB from there.

The UB defense made another statement play late in the first quarter, when Chibueze Onwuka sacked the EMU quarterback in the endzone for a safety to cut the lead to 7-2. On the ensuing possession, the Bulls marched 61 yards on 11 plays and took the lead when Marks, with the help of the entire offensive line, willed his way into the endzone, from nine yards out, to give the Bulls a 9-7 lead.

Marks' touchdown sparked a 27-point second quarter for the Bulls. On a fourth down play at the Eastern Michigan 16-yard line, Vantrease called his own number on a bootleg and fooled everyone, waltzing into the endzone untouched. Vantrease added his second score of the game on a quarterback sneak to extend the UB lead to 22-7. The Bulls capped off their tremendous second quarter, with just nine seconds left on the clock, when Vantrease found Nunn on a fade in the corner of the endzone to give Buffalo a 29-7 lead at the half.

The second half was the Jaret Patterson show as the elusive running back ran for 91 yards and two touchdowns to help seal the win for the Bulls.

Onwuka led the UB defense with five tackles and a sack. He had one of UB's five sacks on the day. Tyrece Woods, Taylor Riggins, Frendy Darelus and Max Michel also added sacks for the Bulls. Aapri Washington secured his second interception of the season in the fourth quarter.

"I think this team is playing with a lot of confidence right now and that's exciting," head coach Lance Leipold said. "I'm proud of them. I'm proud of the job our assistant coaches have done to this point and we've got to keep building on it."

KENT STATE 30, BUFFALO 27

NOV. 14, 2019 • DIX STADIUM • KENT, OH

KENT, OH - Kent State rallied to score 24 fourth-quarter points and stunned Buffalo, 30-27, on Thursday night at Dix Stadium. The loss dropped the Bulls to 5-5 overall and 3-3 in Mid-American Conference play.

The Bulls were leading, 27-6, with under eight minutes to play before the Flashes rallied. After scoring a touchdown with 7:39 left, and recovering an onside kick, Kent State needed only two plays to find the endzone again and make it a one-score game. The key play came on UB's next drive when the Flashes blocked a punt and gained possession at the UB four-yard line. They were able to punch it in from there to tie the game with 4:52 left.

After Buffalo could only manage one first down, it was forced to punt back to Kent State. The Flashes were able to move the ball to the UB 27-yard line and, with one-second left on the clock, Matthew Trickett hit a 44-yard field to win it for Kent State.

The Bulls dominated most of the statistical categories, gaining 379 yards of total offense. Jaret Patterson rushed for 141 yards in the game to go over 1,000 for the second straight season. Kyle Vantrease passed for 134 yards and a touchdown and rushed for another score. Vantrease opened the scoring with a 30-yard touchdown pass to Daniel Lee, on the Bulls' first drive, to give the Bulls a 7-0 lead. Kevin Marks also found the endzone with a 2-yard run in the third quarter.

Defensively, the Bulls had five sacks and 10 tackles for loss. Malcolm Koonce led the way with 2.5 sacks. Ledarius Mack also had a pair of sacks in the game. Matt Otwinowski tied a career-high with 10 tackles. Joey Banks had seven tackles and an interception.

BUFFALO 49, TOLEDO 30

NOV. 20, 2019 • UB Stadium • Buffalo, NY

BUFFALO, NY – Behind five touchdowns by running back Jaret Patterson, the University at Buffalo football team defeated Toledo, 49-30, at UB Stadium on Wednesday night. It was the sixth win for the Bulls, securing bowl eligibility for the third straight season.

Patterson's five touchdowns tied the single-game Mid-American Conference record. The sophomore back had four rushing touchdowns, tying the FBS-era school record, and added his first career receiving touchdown.

The Bulls had their most successful game of the season rushing the ball, rolling up 331 yards on the ground. Patterson finished with 192 yards on 32 carries and Kevin Marks added 118 yards and a score on 16 touches. Quarterback Kyle Vantrease added a rushing score for six rushing touchdowns in the game, the most by a UB team in its FBS era and one shy of the all-time school record.

The Bulls opened the scoring late in the first quarter when Marks found the end zone on a four-yard run. On the ensuing possession, Matt Otwinowski came up with his first career interception to set up the Bulls at the Toledo 24-yard line. On the first play from scrimmage, Patterson took a screen pass from Vantrease and barreled 24 yards to the end zone to give the Bulls a 14-0 lead.

Toledo struck back quickly, scoring two touchdowns in less than two minutes to tie the game at 14. The Bulls responded with a 10-play, 75-yard drive, capped off by a 1-yard Patterson touchdown run, to take the lead for good, 21-14. Patterson's third touchdown, a 1-yard run, gave the Bulls a 28-17 advantage late in the first half. Buffalo took a 28-20 lead to the locker room at halftime.

After Toledo opened the second half with a field goal to cut the UB lead to 28-23, it was all UB. Patterson capped two long scoring drives with a two and seven-yard touchdown run, respectively, to extend the lead to 42-23 early in the fourth quarter.

"When our team is playing fast and doing some things, we're a pretty good football team," head coach Lance Leipold said. "I thought they embraced that all week and they had a great focus in the last 24 hours approaching kickoff, and I think they went out and executed that way."

While the offense moved the ball efficiently all night, the defense also had another solid game, holding the MAC's top rushing team to 154 yards on the ground. Otwinowski tied a career high with 10 tackles to go along with his interception. The Bulls had four more sacks in the game, led by Ledarius Mack's two, to bring their total to 27 over the last six games.

Buffalo improved to 6-5 overall and 4-3 in the MAC and will close out the regular season at home next Friday against Bowling Green.

BUFFALO 49, BOWLING GREEN 7

NOV. 29, 2019 • UB Stadium • Buffalo, NY

BUFFALO, NY – Jaret Patterson rushed for a school-best 298 yards and scored a Mid-American Conference-record six touchdowns to lead the University at Buffalo football team to a 49-7 win over Bowling Green on Friday afternoon at UB Stadium. Patterson led a rushing attack that rolled up 455 yards on the ground, the most ever in a game in UB's FBS era.

Patterson wasted little time on his assault on the record book as, on the first play from scrimmage, he ripped off an 81-yard touchdown run to quickly give the Bulls a 7-0 lead. The sophomore running back scored on a 35-yard run on the Bulls' third possession and added a 30-yard touchdown run the following possession to give Buffalo a 21-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

Patterson added a nine-yard and a one-yard TD run in the second quarter and by halftime, he had rushed for 272 yards and five touchdowns. The Bulls led the Falcons, 35-7, at the break.

Patterson scored his MAC-record sixth touchdown on a one-yard run early in the fourth quarter. He finished the game with 298 yards on 26 carries to break the single-game school record of 282 yards previously held by Jordan Johnson.

Kevin Marks tallied UB's final rushing touchdown on a three-yard run midway through the fourth quarter. He broke off a 70-yard run a play earlier to set up the score. Marks finished with 107 yards in the game to go over 1,000 on the season, joining Patterson as the first duo in school history to each rush for 1,000 yards in the same season.

"Getting those type of yards is awesome, but it's even more impressive to me when everyone knows that's what you're going to do," head coach Lance Leipold said. "We're not fooling anyone that we're running the football and that it's coming. For us to start off the game the way we did and to play at that level says a lot."

Quarterback Kyle Vantrease had a solid afternoon, finishing 10-of-14 for 131 yards in the game. Antonio Nunn had four catches for 67 yards and Daniel Lee and Zac Lefebvre each added two grabs.

The defense, led by Joey Banks' eight tackles, limited the Falcons to 187 yards of total offense. Matt Otwinowski added seven tackles, a tackle for loss and a pass breakup.

The Bulls finished the regular season 7-5, marking the first time since 1958 and 1959 UB has won seven or more games in back-to-back seasons. Buffalo will now await a likely bowl invitation.

2020 BUFFALO FOOTBALL

BUFFALO 31 , CHARLOTTE 9

DEC. 20, 2019 • Nassau Bahamas • Bahamas Bowl

NASSAU, BAHAMAS – History was made on Saturday afternoon as the University at Buffalo football team won the first bowl game in school history by defeating Charlotte, 31-9, in the Makers Wanted Bahamas Bowl played at Thomas Robinson Stadium in Nassau, Bahamas

Sophomore running back Jaret Patterson was named the Offensive Most Valuable player after rushing for 173 yards and two touchdowns in the game.

While Patterson paced the offensive attack, it was the defense that shined in the Bahamas sun. Charlotte, one of top rushing teams in Conference USA, and 25th nationally, was limited to just 80 yards on the ground. Junior defensive end Malcolm Koonce was named the Defensive Most Valuable Player after tallying five tackles, two sacks and a forced fumble. He had two of UB's five sacks in the game.

The Bulls wasted little time getting on the board as they scored on their first possession. Kyle Vantrease connected with Antonio Nunn on a 12-yard fade pattern to give UB a 7-0 lead with 9:12 left in the first quarter.

Vantrease called his own number with a quarterback sneak, with three minutes left in the half, to give the Bulls a 14-0 lead.

Linebacker James Patterson made one of the biggest defensive plays of the game when he came up with an interception on Charlotte's first play of its ensuing possession. The Bulls were able to convert that into a 31-yard Alex McNulty field goal to take a 17-0 lead at the half.

Buffalo extended its lead to 24-0 on a 6-yard Patterson touchdown run, his first of the game, with 5:22 left in the third quarter.

Charlotte finally got on the board late in the third quarter on a 51-yard touchdown pass. Linebacker Matt Otwinowski sniffed out the 49ers' two-point conversion try to keep it a three-score game, 24-6.

After Charlotte kicked a field goal to make the score 24-9 with 10 minutes left in the game, the offense put together its most impressive drive of the game. The Bulls mounted a 16-play, 75-yard drive that took over nine minutes off the clock. Patterson put the game on ice with a 10-yard touchdown run with 1:43 left.

With a couple injuries on defense, reserve players had to step up. Junior cornerback Ali Abbas was one of those players as had a career-high nine tackles and a big pass breakup.

Seniors Joey Banks and Devon Russell finished their career on a high note with nine and seven tackles, respectively. Fellow senior Ledarius Mack's sack was the final play of the game.

The year was 1894. Fourteen University at Buffalo medical students got together, bought uniforms and practiced after classes, splitting time at Brown's Riding Academy on East North Street and John's Riding Academy on East Utica. After honing their skills carefully, avoiding remnants of horses that grazed their practice pastures, they put on their blue jerseys, tight pants, and leather boots and stepped onto a baseball field on East Ferry Street to face Hobart College. As they kicked off to the visitors, no one among those first UB football players could have foreseen the journey they were embarking upon. They were not merely kicking a football, they were kicking off UB's quest for intercollegiate competition.

UB's football program began modestly when the University, then a private institution consisting of schools of dentistry, law, medicine and pharmacy, formed an athletic association. The athletic association in turn started the first football program. That first team was led by captain A. B. Stein who was joined by founding members J.B. Crofts, Irving Johnson, William Potter, Gray McCutcheon, St. John Green and "Dinky" Johnson. During the first three years of its existence, the football team played squads from the University of Rochester and Hobart College and experienced little success, compiling a record of 0-2-4. Most importantly however, the team gained recognition from UB during this period when the University granted the team usage of an on-campus field for its home games.

UB football savored its first taste of success in 1897 when the team compiled a 7-0 record under manager E.J. Meyer and coach C.W. Dibble. Crowds began to flock to UB's home games, and in response the university moved many of the team's more popular contests to Civic Stadium in 1900.

The UB football bandwagon really gained momentum when the team played in an exhibition match at the 1901 Pan-American Exposition. UB played in front of a Chinese representative who "...did not understand much about the game, was delighted to see the sport." This high point was short-lived however, as UB was dealt a crushing 128-0 defeat by national powerhouse University of Michigan in what remains the worst defeat ever suffered by a UB squad. That loss seemingly was symbolic of the hard times to come as poor support and organization for the following two seasons forced UB's athletic association to cease football operations after the 1903 season.

Frank M. Pleasant awoke the hibernating UB football program in 1915 when he revitalized the program as the team's first full-time, professional head coach. UB adopted the Bison as its mascot that year and proceeded to a 3-3 record.

Art Powell took over the reins of the program in 1916, helping UB to improve with each season. UB football hit a peak in 1918 when the squad compiled a 3-1 record. The Bisons also enjoyed their most lopsided victory to date during the '18 campaign, an 81-0 defeat of Hobart.

The 1923 season brought many changes to UB's football program. James Batterson took over as head coach and the Bisons played their first game at Rotary Field, dedicated by the Rotary Club of Buffalo. Dr. James Ailinger, a standout basketball player for UB and a member of the 1922 football team, recalled UB's humble facilities on opening day at Rotary Field.

"The first season we played here we had to dress up in Hayes Hall and run to the field," said Ailinger. "In between there was a farm, so we had to run through potato and vegetable fields to reach the stadium. Only the end zone was marked. There were stones everywhere and the end zone on the side near the present medical school was six feet higher than the other side. Winning the toss was important because we could choose to play uphill or downhill."

UB struggled the first season in its new home, compiling a 1-5 record.

The six seasons that followed under head coaches James Bond (1923) and Russell Carrick (1924-28) were rather bleak as well. The Bisons did not have a winning season over that period, tallying a record of 7-36-3. By 1929 it was quite evident that UB's football program desperately needed resuscitation once again. The man to jump start UB was head coach Jay "Biffy" Lee, former roommate at Notre Dame of legendary coach Knute Rockne. Some of Rockne's majestic motivation must have rubbed off as Lee led UB to a 5-2 record in what would be the Bisons' only winning campaign in 16 seasons. Lee upgraded UB's schedule during the following two seasons and the Bisons' record suffered once again as they fell to squads from Fordham, Carnegie Tech, Dartmouth and the Notre Dame B team.

In 1931, the team changed its mascot to the Bull in order to distinguish UB from the professional teams in the Queen City.

Jim Peelle was hired as the 12th head coach in Bulls' history in 1936 with the burden of ending six consecutive losing campaigns. Peelle rejuvenated the program by notching five victories against three losses in his inaugural season. That success was short-lived however, as UB failed to post another winning season until 1942 when Peelle's squad went 6-2 once again with impressive victories over Hobart, St. Lawrence and Johns Hopkins.

UB heeded the call of its nation after the 1942 season by suspending all intercollegiate athletics due to the country's involvement in World War II. The Bulls returned to the field in 1946 and staged their second consecutive winning season for the first time since 1899. Civic Stadium became the home site for all UB home games in 1946, a relationship which lasted until 1954.

Frank Clair was hand-picked by Peelle to be his replacement in 1948.

Clair extended UB's consecutive winning seasons mark to five during his two-year stint. The highlight of Clair's tenure was a 48-13 victory over the heavily-favored Louisville Cardinals.

The Canadian Football League lured Clair away in 1950 and UB Athletic Director Jim Peelle brought back a familiar face to lead the Bulls, former head coach James Wilson. Despite severe cutbacks in the football program's budget and mediocre seasons, the Bulls drew 26,126 fans to Civic Stadium, setting a single-game attendance record, in a 47-13 loss to Colgate.

In 1955, Clifford C. Furnas was named Chancellor of the University and instituted a five-year plan aimed at upgrading UB's athletic programs. Richard "Dick" Offenhamer was tabbed to lead the Bulls back to respectability and did so by posting a 4-4-1 record in his initial season. Fran Woidzik, a standout on the 1955 squad, went on to become the first Bull to be taken in the National Football League draft. Offenhamer's first season was a prelude of good things to come for the Bulls, as he would end his career with UB's best career winning percentage.

The year 1958 will forever be remembered as one of the greatest seasons in UB football history. On the strength of an 8-1 record that included victories over Harvard and Columbia, UB claimed the prestigious Lambert Cup, emblematic of Eastern small college supremacy. Team captains Nick Bottini and Lou Reale accepted the award on the Ed Sullivan Show on December 14 of that year before a national audience. The Bulls also earned an invitation to the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Florida but declined the offer to protest the discriminatory policies of the bowl's stadium, which refused to allow black athletes to compete on its field.

After posting an 8-1 record and finishing second in the Lambert Cup competition to Delaware in 1959, UB moved up to University Division status in 1960.

UB football made great strides in the early 1960s with stars like quarterback John "Long John" Stofa and defensive tackle Gerry Philbin. Stofa rewrote UB's passing records during his career while Philbin was named to the All-East team and played in the North-South and Coaches All-American post-season games. Both Stofa and Philbin would go on to play in the NFL following their UB careers.

UB reached another pinnacle in 1962, being recognized as "major" by the NCAA. UB also received attention in 1964 when its contest at Boston University was televised to a national audience.

Doc Urich handled UB's coaching duties for the 1966-68 seasons after Offenhamer stepped down. Urich guided UB to its finest season at the "major" level with a 7-3 record, losing only to Iowa State, Boston College and Villanova.

Bob Deming took over as head coach for the 1969 and '70 seasons and led the Bulls to wins over Boston College and Villanova in 1969. In 1970, ABC-TV regionally televised a 16-0 UB victory over Holy Cross at Rotary Field in the only game in UB history to be broadcast from Buffalo by a major network.

The black day in UB football history came in January of 1971 when due to expenses and the political climate on campus, football was dropped as a varsity sport.

In the fall of 1977, with the support of students, alumni and administration, UB restarted its football program with head coach Bill Dando at the reins. UB played four games in that first season, playing RIT to a 7-7 tie in its very first game back, the last tie in UB school history.

The Bulls built back to respectability quickly and did not have a losing season from 1980-1984, posting a 30-21 record.

In 1985, UB moved to the greener pastures of the Amherst Campus and the 4,000-seat UB Stadium. The Bulls defeated Villanova, 29-27, in Philadelphia in 1986 and once again talk of a possible upgrade of UB's program was alive.

New University President Steven Sample appealed to the Intercollegiate Athletics Board (IAB) in 1985 to upgrade UB to Division I-AA status. The IAB granted that request and after approval by the SUNY system in February of 1986, the "Run to Division I" had begun.

Former UB great Sam Sanders was hired in 1990 to replace Bill Dando and lead the Bulls from Division III and into the spotlight of Division I. After two rebuilding years under Sanders, the program took a hard hit when the head coach was forced to step down for medical reasons. Jim Ward, UB's offensive coordinator under Sanders, became the 20th head coach of the University at Buffalo's football program in 1992.

Under the direction of Athletic Director Nelson E. Townsend with the strong support of University President William R. Greiner, UB completed its "Run to Division I" on September 4, 1993, playing its first game at the Division I level in more than 20 years against the University of Maine. UB unveiled its $22 million, 16,500-seat UB Stadium on the Amherst Campus, site of the 1993 World University Games. In front of 14,179 fans, the Bulls put on quite a show, taking the lead with 51 seconds remaining in the contest. Maine spoiled UB's return, however, scoring a last-second touchdown to earn a 31-27 win.

In January of 1995, the Bulls came full circle when they hired UB alum Craig Cirbus ('80), who had spent the previous 11 years as an assistant under legendary coach Joe Paterno at Penn State.

A few months later, the Bulls wowed Western New York when they announced that they would be heading to Division I-A and the Mid-American Conference in 1999.

The 1996 season will go down as one of the finest in school history. The Bulls finished 8-3 on the season, earning the first Top 25 ranking in school history and earning Cirbus I-AA Independent National Coach of theYear honors. In addition, three Bulls (Ed Ellis, Craig Guest and Gerald Carlson) signed NFL contracts with Ellis being picked in the 4th round by the New England Patriots. In 1999, UB rejoined the ranks of major college football with its entrance into the Mid-American Conference. The Bulls were back in the big-time for the first time in nearly 30 years.

The Bulls earned their first Division I-A victory in 30 years on September 23, 2000 when they nipped Bowling Green, 20-17, at UB Stadium. Buffalo would go on to defeat Kent State and finish 2-4 in the MAC East in 2000.

On November 30, 2000 Athletic Director Bob Arkelipane announced the hiring of Jim Hofher as the 22nd head football coach in UB history. Hofher brought with him to Buffalo 22 years of Division I coaching experience, including stints as an assistant at Tennessee, Syracuse and North Carolina and eight years as head coach at Cornell University.

On December 16, 2005 Athletic Director Warde Manuel announced that Turner Gill, who was part of three national championships as a coach at the University of Nebraska and a Heisman Trophy finalist as a player, agreed to a five-year contract to become the 23rd head football coach at the University at Buffalo. In his first season with the Bulls, UB scored 220 points, the most by a Buffalo team since moving to I-A.

Buffalo had its most successful season since returning to the Division I-A ranks in 2007. The Bulls finished the year 5-7 overall and 5-3 in the Mid-American Conference for a share of the East Division regular season title. Turner Gill was named MAC Coach of the Year and a UB record eight players were named to the All-Conference Team. Junior quarterback Drew Willy completed a school-record 258 passes and had the highest pass efficiency rating in school history and sophomore running back James Starks became the Bulls' first 1,000-yard rusher in the I-A era with 1,103 yards.

On December 5, 2008 the Bulls defeated 12th-ranked and undefeated Ball State to win the MAC Championship for the first time in school history.

The Bulls had an 8-6 record in 2008. The eight wins were the most in the Bulls' Division I-A era and one shy of the school record for wins in a season.

The 2008 season featured one of the most explosive offenses in school history. Gill, who handled the play calling, commanded an offense that scored a school-record 424 points. Quarterback Drew Willy threw for a school-record 3,304 yards and 25 touchdowns, running back James Starks ran for a school-record 1,333 yards and 16 touchdowns and wideout Naaman Roosevelt established school records of 104 receptions, 1,402 yards and 13 touchdowns.

The Bulls played in their first ever bowl game when they faced off against Connecticut in the 2009 International Bowl.

The Bulls finished 2009 season 5-7 and featured an offense that averaged 405 yards per game - the highest average in UB's Division I-A era. Numerous Bulls wrapped up record-breaking careers. Although he missed the entire season with a shoulder injury, Starks finished his career as the school record holder for rushing (3,140 yards) and rushing touchdowns (34). He was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the sixth round of the NFL Draft. Naaman Roosevelt set the school record for receptions (268) and receiving yards (3,551) and signed with the Buffalo Bills.

Jeff Quinn was hired as Buffalo's 24th head coach on December 22, 2010. Quinn has produced record-breaking offenses throughout his 27-year college coaching tenure and has won conference and national championships at his last three stops, including five conference crowns in the past eight seasons. He most recently spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator at Cincinnati.

In 2010, Davonte Shannon broke the school record for career tackles with 461 enroute to being named to the All-MAC First Team for the fourth straight year. He became just the fourth player in the history of the Mid-American Conference to earn that distinction. Cornerback Josh Thomas was selected in the fifth round (143rd pick) of the NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

In 2011, Branden Oliver rushed for a school-record 1,395 yards and added 13 touchdowns en route to earning first-team All-MAC honors. Chazz Anderson transferred from Cincinnati to play his final season at Buffalo. The UB signal caller threw for 2,454 yards and 11 touchdowns on the year. He set a single-game school record with 35 completions against Northern Illinois (10/22). Khalil Mack ranked third in the nation in tackles for loss with 20.5.

The Bulls had a strong finish to the 2012 campaign by winning three of the final four games. Using a plethora of running backs, the Bulls rushed for 2,120 yards - the third highest total in school history. Khalil Mack was named All-MAC First Team for the second straight year in a season in which he set the school record for career tackles for loss (56) and forced fumbles (11).

UB had one of its finest seasons as a Division I-A program in 2013. The Bulls went 8-5, including a 6-2 record in the MAC. It was their most MAC wins since joining the conference in 1999. UB advanced to the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl for just its second ever bowl appearance in school history.

Branden Oliver finished his career as the Bulls all-time leading rusher with 4,409 yards. Alex Neutz broke the school record for career touchdown receptions with 31. And then there was Khalil Mack. The All-American linebacker broke the NCAA record for career forced fumbles with 16 and tied the NCAA mark for career tackles for loss with 75. He went on to become the Bulls' highest drafted player in school history as he was picked fifth overall by the Oakland Raiders in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Anthone Taylor rushed for 1,403 yards in 2014 - the second-highest single-season effort in school history. Lance Leipold was named the 25th UB football head coach on Dec. 1, 2014. Kristjan Sokoli was selected in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks.

The Bulls went 5-7 under first-year head coach Lance Leipold. Quarterback Joe Licata capped off his stellar career by setting nine different school passing records, including career passing yards (9,485) and career touchdown passes (76).

In 2016, Jordan Johnson rushed for over 1,000 yards on the season, including a school-record 282 yards in a game vs. Akron. Linebacker Khalil Hodge finished the season with 123 tackles, just two shy of the FBS-era record for a single season.

The Bulls won the final three games of the 2017 season to finish 6-6 and earn bowl eligibility for just the third time in school history. In his first season at UB, junior wide receiver Anthony Johnson burst onto the scene with 76 catches for 1,356 yards and a school-record 14 touchdowns. Linebacker Khalil Hodge set an FBS-era record with 154 tackles on the year.

2018 was arguably the best season in the FBS era. The Bulls won a school-record 10 games, including a 7-1 mark in conference play - their best since joining the MAC in 1999. Buffalo played in the MAC Championship game for the second time in school history, dropping a 30-29 heartbreaker to Northern Illinois. UB played in its third bowl game in program history, falling to Troy, 42-32, in the Dollar General Bowl. Quarterback Tyree Jackson was named the MAC Offensive Player of the Year - the first time a UB player won the award.

Even with the departure of key personnel, the 2019 season proved to be a special one for the Bulls. UB finished with a record of 8-5 and finished the campaign by winning six of its last seven games, including a 31-9 victory over Charlotte in the Bahamas Bowl for the school's first bowl game victory. Sophomore running back Jaret Patterson set single-season school records with 1,799 yards rushing and 19 rushing touchdowns and paced a rushing attack that set a school record with 3,256 yards. A program-record 12 players were named to the All-MAC team.

UB FOOTBALL HISTORY

- 2000 Buffalo posts its first victory over a Division I-A opponent since 1970 when the Bulls score a dramatic 20-17 come-from-behind win over MAC rival Bowling Green on Sept. 23, 2000. After the season, Athletic Director Bob Arkeilpane appoints Jim Hofner (Cornell, '79) as the 22nd head coach in UB football history.
- 2001 The Bulls score one of the historic wins in school history with a 26-19 win at Army one week after posting their first Mid-American Conference shutout with a 44-0 win over Ohio.
- 2002 Buffalo earns its first-ever victory over a Bowl Championship Series (BCS) team when it posts a shocking 34-11 win at Rutgers of the Big East.
- 2005 The Bulls win at Kent State, 10-6, for their first Mid-American Conference road victory. Following the season, Athletic Director Warde Manuel appoints Turner Gill as the 23rd head coach in UB football history.
- 2006 New head coach Turner Gill led the Bulls to a 2-10 record with wins over Temple and division-leading Kent State. The Bulls scored the most points in a season (220) since moving to Division I-A. Buffalo also scored the most points (201) of any team in the MAC East Division.
- 2007 UB had its best season since returning to Division I-A by finishing the season 5-7 overall and 5-3 in the MAC for a share of the MAC East Division regular season title. Turner Gill was named MAC Coach of the Year. A UB record eight players were named All-MAC, including James Starks who became the Bulls' first 1,000-yard rusher in the I-A era with 1,103 yards.
- 2008 Bulls have most successful season in Division I history. Finish the year 8-6, win the MAC Championship and play Connecticut in the International Bowl for first bowl appearance in school history. Quarterback Drew Willy finishes career by breaking nearly every school passing record. Only a junior, James Starks breaks the school record for career rushing with 3,142 yards. Naaman Roosevelt records 104 catches on the season - one shy of the Mid-American Conference record.
- 2009 The Bulls finished 5-7 and featured an offense that averaged 405 yards per game - the highest average in UB's Division I-A era. Naaman Roosevelt set the school record for career receptions (268) and receiving yards (3,551). Davonte Shannon became the first UB player to be a three-time All-MAC First Team selection. Following the season, Athletic Director Warde Manuel appoints Jeff Quinn as the 24th head coach in UB football history.
- 2010 New head coach Jeff Quinn leads the Bulls to a 2-10 record. Davonte Shannon broke the school record for career tackles with 461 en route to being named to the All-MAC First Team for the fourth straight year. Josh Thomas selected by the Dallas Cowboys in the fifth round of the NFL Draft.
- 2011 Branden Oliver rushed for a school-record 1,395 yards on the season. Khalil Mack ranked third in the nation in tackles for loss with 20.5. Both players earned first-team All-MAC honors.
- 2012 The Bulls finished the season strong by winning three of the final four games and went 4-8 overall. Steven Means was selected by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the fifth round of the NFL Draft.
- 2013 UB went 8-5 and played San Diego State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl for just its second ever bowl game. Running back Branden Oliver broke both the single season (1,535) and career (4,049) rushing records. Record seven Bulls were named All-MAC, including five to the First Team. Linebacker Khalil Mack earned All-American honors and was selected fifth overall by the Oakland Raiders in the NFL, becoming UB's highest ever NFL draft pick.
- 2014 In a season in which the Bulls went 5-6, Anthone Taylor rushed for 1,403 yards - the second best single-season effort in school history. Joe Licata broke the single season (29) and career (60) passing touchdown school record. Kristjan Sokoli was selected in the 5th round of the NFL Draft by the Seahawks. Following the season, Athletic Director Danny White named Lance Leipold the 25th head coach in program history.
- 2015 Under first year head coach Lance Leipold, the Bulls finished 5-7. It was the most wins by a first-year head coach since Bob Deming won six games in 1969. Joe Licata finished his career holding numerous passing records, including career passing yards (9,485) and passing touchdowns (76). Matt Weiser was named an Academic All-American after shattering the single-season school record for receptions (63) and receiving yards (625) by a tight end.
- 2016 Jordan Johnson rushed for a school-record 282 yards in a win over Akron. Mason Schreck had 651 receiving yards - the most ever by a tight end in school history. Schreck was selected in the 7th round of the NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals.
- 2017 UB went 6-6 and earned bowl eligibility for just the third time in school history. Anthony Johnson ranked second in the nation in receiving, averaging 113 yards per game and scored a school-record 14 touchdowns. Linebacker Khalil Hodge ranked second in the nation in tackles with 154 - a school record in the Bulls' FBS era.
- 2018 The Bulls won a school-record 10 games, finishing with a 10-4 record. They won the MAC East Division and earned a spot in the MAC title game for the second time in school history - losing to Northern Illinois, 30-29. UB played Troy in the Dollar General Bowl, the team's third bowl appearance in program history. Quarterback Tyree Jackson was named MAC Offensive Player of the Year and running back Jaret Patterson was named MAC Freshman of the Year.
- 2019 The Bulls made history by winning their first ever bowl game, defeating Charlotte, 31-9, in the Bahamas Bowl. Jaret Patterson set a school-record by rushing for 1,799 yards on the season. UB ranked second in the nation in sacks allowed (8) and fourth in the country in rushing defense (94.2). A school-record 12 Bulls were named to the All-MAC team.

BUFFALO BULLS

A DIFFERENT TIME IN A DIFFERENT WORLD

Looking back at one of the most influential football teams in University history 50 years later

By Alex Rubin and Stephen Marth

"Picture Buffalo as it is today...and then forget about all of the suburbs - they weren't there. The nightlife downtown, you had a big nightclub called the Town Casino, you had all of these theaters downtown, it was just so different than what exists today that you can't even imagine."

Stanley Kowalski, left guard for the 1958 Bulls football team, said the above reminiscing about his memories of the city of Buffalo. While this image of Buffalo remains dear to him, another issue clouds his memories - the scandal of the 1958 Tangerine Bowl.

The 1958 football season at the University at Buffalo was one of extreme highs and even more extreme lows; marked by an appearance on the Ed Sullivan show after an 8-1 season, sullied by racism and segregation.

After finishing the season as the Lambert Cup champions, Buffalo was invited to play in the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, FL. However, after accepting the invitation, University Chancellor Clifford Furnas, along with the entire team, made the decision to not play in the game; they learned that their two black players, Willie Evans and Mike Wilson, would not be allowed to play as per the request of the hosting school district.

In a statement made about his decision, Furnas said, "They are two of our finest young men, and have greatly contributed to our fine showing this season. The possibility of discrimination against any member of the team prevents our appearance at the game."

Being a member of the football team made Evans, the star running back for the team, a hot commodity around campus. The fact that he was one of very few minorities on campus made it tough for him at times.

"It was subtle. I didn't have the luxury of cutting class, because having made a little name for myself in athletics, professors knew who I was. Not to mention, I was usually the only black person in the class," Evans said.

One reason Kowalski believes there was not blatant racism within the team was that several players grew up without having relationships with minorities. Since there was no history of racism in their background, Kowalski believes it allowed the players to come in with open minds towards both Wilson and Evans.

"I grew up in a small mill town in Pennsylvania... we didn't have any blacks living there, so you didn't have prejudice built up ingrained in your head by your parents or your uncles," Kowalski said.

In the first game of the season, the Bulls were to face Harvard, one of the most respected teams in the nation at the time. Evans remembers this win being the first sign that the team could do something special.

"If you went back the year before, we were 5-4. I can remember vividly our coach saying before our last game versus Temple, he wanted us to win our last game so we could go in to the next season with a win, when we played Harvard," Evans said.

"[Beating Harvard] got us off to a good start - it was a different feeling. We had no notion of winning the Lambert Cup, we didn't even know about it. We just wanted to win football games."

According to Kowalski, the Bulls were in a unique position due to the fact that they were the only team in or near Buffalo. This gathered media attention.

"Most of the teams that played football after the Second World War had already dropped it," Kowalski said. "We were the only game in town and the papers started to give us all kinds of press, which was kind changed so dramatically...we couldn't compare to the teams that are put on the field today, but at that time, we were a very respectable team."

In the final game of the regular season, the Bulls defeated Bucknell 38-0 to earn their first Lambert Cup. This game was especially important for Kowalski, who played in front of friends, family and his old high school football coach. Kowalski did not disappoint, returning an interception for a touchdown en route to Buffalo's victory.

"They are two of our finest young men, and have greatly contributed to our fine showing this season. The possibility of discrimination against any member of the team prevents our appearance at the game."

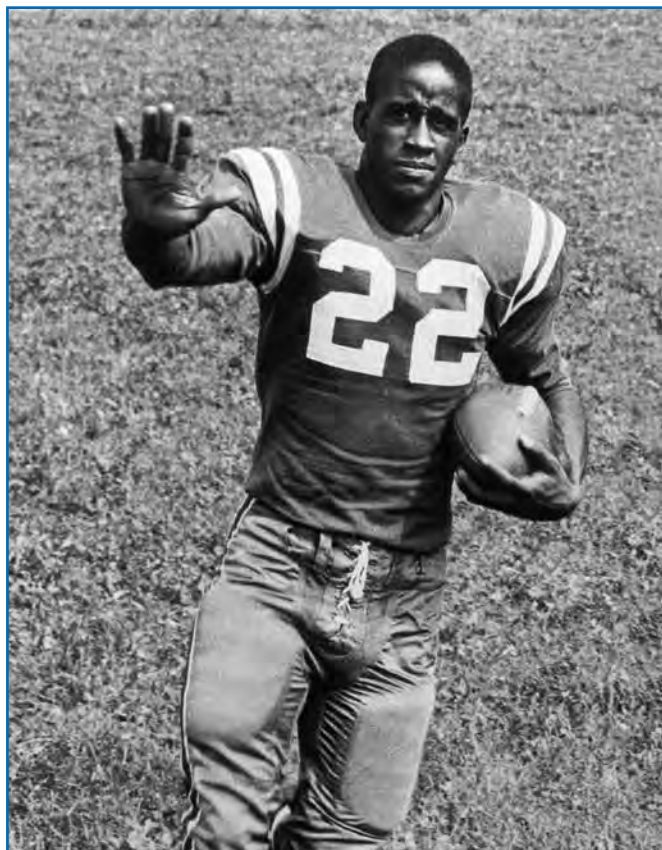

of unique."

"It was a big deal for Buffalo at the time," Evans concurred. "Blacks weren't included in the paper at all for any reason, yet we were on the front page. When we were coming back from Harvard, the pilot told us that there were a couple thousand students waiting for us at the airport. It was great support."

It was not a coincidence that the Bulls were peaking in 1958; the senior class was the first class to play all four years on scholarship, meaning the team was as cohesive as ever and also had as much talent as possible. While Kowalski understands that football has changed immensely in the past 50 years, he is proud of the accomplishments the team made, and how they stuck together in the face of adversity that followed the end of the regular season.

"We stand very high, simply because of the celebrity that was given to us, that opportunity that we had to make a mark...we were the first team to go into the UB Hall of Fame," Kowalski said. "Obviously the whole game of football has

After the victory, Buffalo's co-captains Nicholas Bottini and Louis Reale appeared on the Ed Sullivan show to accept the Lambert Cup, a trophy for the top team of the "Eastern Small

Willie Evans averaged 7.6 yards per carry for 530 yards in 1958

Colleges."

Along with the victory came an invite to the Tangerine Bowl. When news broke about the Bulls being invited to their first bowl game, the team was skeptical, as it would have meant missing a week of classes and work. Several players on the team were married and needed to continue to work to support their family. After much debate however, the team decided to accept the invite.

The decision was quickly changed when Buffalo was informed that if the team was to play, they would have to do so without Evans or Wilson, who were both black.

"Our initial feelings were good. We never even thought about playing in a bowl game. The issue of race didn't even come up in the beginning," Evans said. "The only thing I recall is the first meeting we had where we decided we wanted to go as a team. I found out (about the racism issue) as I walked out of the house after Thanksgiving, and a neighbor said to me 'I guess they don't want you black boys down there...' I got the newspaper and there was my picture on the front page of the Courier Express with Mike Wilson, outlining the position Chancellor Furnas took on the issue, where if myself and Mike couldn't play, UB would not take part in the contest."

The field that had been rented for the game belonged to an Orlando school district that had a strict rule that blacks and whites could not play on the field at the same time, the team discovered. In response, the Bulls held a second meeting where they decided not to play in the game if Evans and Wilson would not be allowed to play. While the Elks Club, the sponsor of the game, offered to find another field, Chancellor Furnas was the man charged with making the ultimate decision.

"Chancellor Furnas was a prominent individual... his credentials were impeccable," Kowalski said. "He was a physicist. He was an Olympic sprinter. He was the assistant secretary of defense for research and development in the Eisenhower administration... there wasn't anybody capable of criticizing him. The way he put it was he would not demean any of his players, or even present an opportunity for anyone to be uncomfortable in the Florida setting."

As the image of Buffalo's first bowl came and went, Evans carried the experience of racism with him after college. It followed him to the professional level, as he entered the American Football League. Evans had never visited any of the southern states.

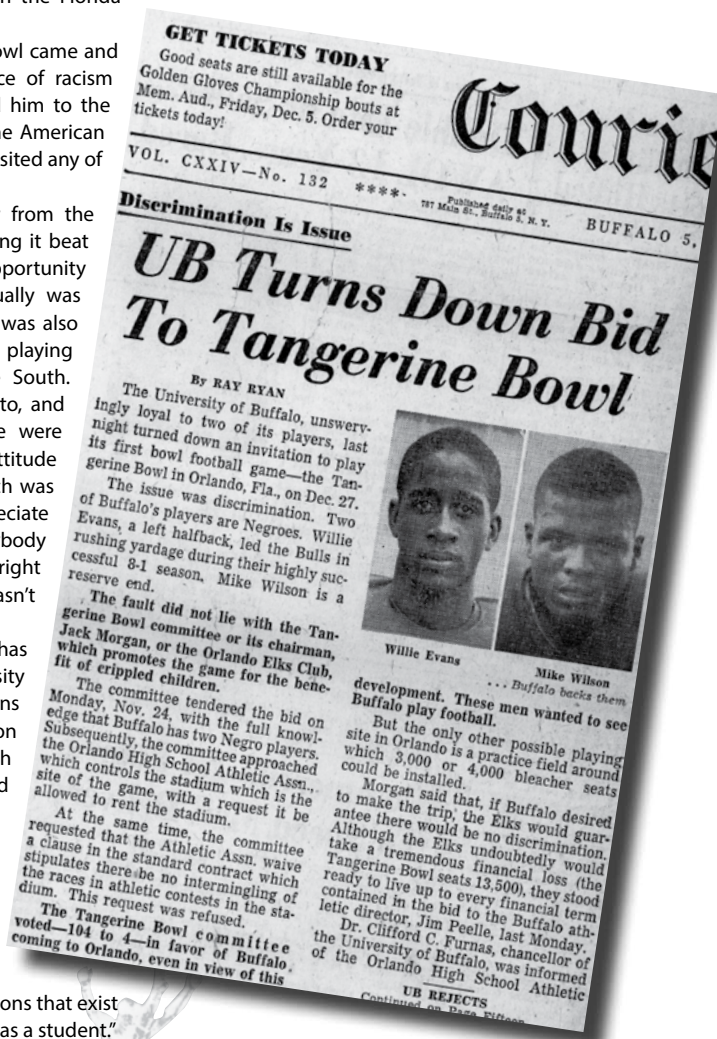

"I had a chip on my shoulder from the experience. It was a matter of letting it beat you down or not. I saw it as an opportunity to show my athleticism. I eventually was drafted by the Buffalo Bills, which was also an experience. It was my first time playing with white ball players from the South. There were players I never spoke to, and they never spoke to me, yet we were 'teammates.' That hardened my attitude about the idea of racism. Our coach was from the South, and I didn't appreciate being called 'boy.' He called everybody 'boy.' I ended up getting released right before the season began, but I wasn't too upset about it."

Since his playing days, Evans has remained active in the University community, holding several positions on the Alumni board and serving on the committees that brought both Athletic Director Warde Manuel and President Simpson to Buffalo.

"One reason why I'm still with the university is the way things have come," Evans said. "Diversity is something that has caught on with the campus. We're not there yet, but it has improved significantly since I was here. There are expectations that exist now that were not around when I was a student."
